Morgan Ryan Is New Vet Counselor

Replaces Shurtler in State Office Located at 210 Fair Street

Morgan Ryan of this city, a veteran of World War 2, has been appointed counselor for the Division of Veterans Affairs, State of New York, and assigned to the Kingston office at 210 Fair Street, replacing Howard C. Shurtler, who resigned as state counselor to become director of the Ulster County Veterans Agency.

Ryan was appointed on March 21 and since that time has been attending the school for counselors which is maintained by the State Division of Veterans Affairs at Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

Before enlisting in the U. S. Army Signal Corps in October, 1942, Mr. Ryan was a teacher at Kingston High School. During the war he served in the European Theatre of Operations with the signal corps and saw service in North Africa. On being released from service in March 1946, he resumed his profession as a teacher at the Kingston High School and has now resumed that position to a great satisfaction.

Mr. Ryan is a graduate of the University of Colorado and has done graduate work at Albany State Teachers College and also in England. During the war he was decorated and administered explosives at the front in the United States and in Europe.

Smelts Run Heavy, Shad Due Soon

Eddyville Fishermen Say New Light Boon to Night Catches

A heavy run of smelts was reported in the Rondout creek near the Eddyville falls today by fishermen who took from 10 to 20 pounds apiece last night but the spawning invasion of shad in the Hudson is not expected to be effective here until next week.

More than 20 fishermen were reported out for smelts in the Eddyville area Wednesday night and the general report was that the fish are currently running to the fishermen's delight.

Hauls this season by the night fishermen at Eddyville were caught in the lambent glow of a comparatively new light rigging which is used as a lure to the smelts.

A small gas mantle, especially equipped for the job, is lowered near the crest of the creek and the men reported it works like a charm.

Price on smelt this year was reported ranging from 45 to 50 cents a pound.

The eight or nine parties who usually fish for shad in the Kingston Point area, meanwhile, were preparing to go out next week. One or two tests were reported made in the area recently but without avail.

Sporadic catches of shad were reported in the river south of the city but they have not yet reached this section of the Hudson in great numbers.

Truman Is Reported Behind Move for Party's Unity

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Democratic leaders apparently earned the blessings of President Truman today in a new effort to patch up party differences represented on one hand by former Vice President Wallace and the other by Senator Byrd of Virginia.

Byrd, who is widely regarded as taking a more conservative line, was invited along with leaders from four other states to the first of a series of national committee meetings.

The Virginia senator has been openly critical of President Truman's proposal for this nation to go it alone in helping Greece and Turkey, and has Wallace although the two frequently are poles apart on other issues.

In announcing the series of meetings, Earl Sullivan, the committee's executive director, said that everything from foreign policy to the high cost of living would be discussed. But he made it fairly plain that the main idea is to get Democratic wheel-horses together for an early and harmonious start on the 1948 presidential campaign.

Dewey Signs Bills to Pay Vets' Bonus

Income Tax Increase of 20 Per Cent Plus Cent on Cigarettes Become Law

To Be Voted Upon

Taxes to Become Part of Collections if Voters Okay Bonus

Albany, N. Y., April 3 (AP)—A 20 per cent increase in present state income taxes and a one-cent additional tax on cigarettes were approved today by Governor Dewey to pay off New York's proposed $400,000,000 veterans' bonus in 10 years.

Both taxes will become effective January 1 if the bonus is approved by the voters in November.

Simultaneously, Dewey signed an accompanying measure setting up machinery for administration and payment of the bonus by the State Department of Taxation and Finance. It appropriates $250,000 for the department's immediate use in making preparations for payment of the projected bonus to the state's 1,600,000 veterans of World War Two as soon as possible after January 1.

The additional taxes, approved by the legislature upon Dewey's recommendation, will yield an estimated $41,250,000 annually for bonus debt liquidation. Of this Dewey estimated $17,250,000 would come from the added tax on cigarettes and $24,000,000 from the increased levies on incomes.

Dewey, in urging the legislature to approve short-term financing of the bonus, said payment of the debt in 10 years instead of the usual 40 would save the state approximately $140,000,000 in interest and other charges.

Reiterates Other Argument

In a memorandum accompanying his signing of the bill today, he also reiterated his other argument to the legislators: That this generation pay the debt rather than pass it on to future generations.

The legislature approved the bonus taxing program over vigorous opposition from Democrats who termed the proposal "a sly attempt to scuttle the bonus" at the polls.

The bonus itself is a bi-partisan, proposed amendment to the constitution. It was passed by the 1946 and 1947 legislatures and will become effective if approved by the people in November.

Democrats, while unanimously approving the bonus, voted solidly this year against Dewey's financing plan and called instead for increased assessments on business to pay the costs.

Only World War Two veterans who resided in the state at least six months before entering military service and who were residents when they made application would be eligible. The proposed schedule of payments would provide $50 for those who served 60 days or less in the United States; $150 for those who served more than 60 days in this country; and $250 for veterans who went overseas.

To Next of Kin

In cases of deceased veterans, payments would go to next of kin.

Bills designed to provide additional educational and housing benefits for veterans also were approved by Dewey, one was a measure which the state insurance department said would permit insurance companies to finance "large-scale" cooperative housing projects.

Another removed the January 1, 1944 ceilings on college tuitions and fees which holders of state war service scholarships may pay, and provided for reimbursement of over-ceiling fees paid since that time.

A third increased, from 40 to 100, the number of state scholarships awarded annually to children of deceased veterans.

Other approved bills: Make permanent a provision prohibiting employment of minors from 14 to 16 for farm service without farm work permit.

Provide that New York City or the United Nations may restrain violations of regulations applying to advertising devices and shows and exhibits in Manhattan and Queens contiguous to or fronting on lands of the U. N.

Signs Point to Easter Week-End 'Phone Crisis'

Federal Officials Try to Break Impasse; Company Stocks Up on Cots

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Government efforts to avert next Monday's threatened coast-to-coast telephone strike moved slowly today.

With 287,000 workers preparing for the walkout, federal officials concentrated on trying to break an impasse in negotiations here between the American Union of Telephone Workers and the long distance division of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The Long Distance Workers Union is one of 39 affiliates of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, which is pushing demands for $12 weekly pay increases and other contract revisions.

Joseph A. Beirne, N.F.T.W. president, pledged that if the A. T. & T. or its subsidiary firms in the Bell System fail to make counter-offers to N.F.T.W. demands, the strike will come off as scheduled for 6 a. m., Monday in each time zone.

Every sign pointed to an Easter week-end "crisis" on the stalemate negotiations, with an agreement likely to come only at the eleventh hour.

Ties close to the current negotiations said privately that a union-company agreement to arbitrate their dispute appears to be the most likely solution if a strike is to be averted.

But they added that, barring company counter-offers, an agreement to arbitrate will be hard to win from the unions. The Bell companies have taken the position a general, industry-wide increase can't be justified at this time.

Krug Closes 518 Soft Coal Mines Believed Unsafe

Pits Will Be Closed Until Certified by Local Union's Safety Group

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Secretary of the Interior Krug today ordered the indefinite closing of 518 coal mines for safety reasons and John L. Lewis commented:

"My God in heaven forgive him" for not closing them before 111 miners died at Centralia, Ill.

Krug announced that 2,013 other mines in government possession will be permitted to reopen next Monday at end of the miners' six-day mourning period for the Centralia victims, provided the pits are certified as safe.

The 518 mines ordered closed by Krug because they are "believed dangerous," employ 40,000 workers.

Lewis was testifying on mine safety to a House committee when Krug issued the order at the Interior Department.

"I point out," the United Mine Workers' chief said, "that Secretary Krug is doing now what he should have done ever since the safety code became effective. He's starting to enforce his own code—but after 111 men died at Centralia."

"Now on this particular day of our Lord, Mr. Krug found 518 mines not safe."

"May God in heaven forgive him for not finding those mines before those men died."

Lewis then demanded: What should the United Mine Workers do now? He continued:

"If we must grind up human flesh and bones in the industrial machine, then we call modern America then before God I assert that those who consume the coal and are made comfortable by it, owe protection to those men first, and owe security to their widows and children."

"I say it. I voice it. I proclaim it. And I care not who in heaven or hell opposes it."

"We know that the coal operators wouldn't keep the mines safe. That's the reason why we asked Krug to do it."

"He promised me, didn't he? Or did he? Why, he signed it with me at the White House under the Kleig lights and the miners believed him. They didn't know he was lying and they are joining me in demanding that he be removed from his high office."

Recalling the work agreement which he signed last year with Krug, he said:

"We knew that the coal operators wouldn't keep the mines safe. That's the reason why we asked Krug to do it."

"He promised me, didn't he? Or did he? Why, he signed it with me at the White House under the Kleig lights and the miners believed him. They didn't know he was lying and they are joining me in demanding that he be removed from his high office."

Lewis called Krug:

"This modern Hercules with the number 12 shoe and the size five hat."

Scornfully, Lewis drewled that this "Hercules" had "reduced mine fatalities from 95 a month to 85 a month and then rested from his labors."

Krug's announcement came as Lewis appeared before a House labor subcommittee to renew his Continued on Page Twenty-five

Amended Bill Goes To Senate

Eaton Places Blame on Russia for U.N. Inability

Washington, April 3 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today approved by a vote 13-0 legislation to carry out President Truman's program of extending $400,000,000 financial and limited military aid to Greece and Turkey.

Brushing aside proposals to eliminate Turkey as a beneficiary and to strip out the military aid provisions, the committee unanimously sent an amended bill to the Senate for expected action there next week.

Before acting, it revised an amendment by Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) to give the United Nations authority to call a halt on American assistance only when the international organization finds that assistance being provided by itself makes the continuance of American aid unnecessary.

Rep. Eaton (R-N.J.), of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, bluntly blamed Russia today for inability of the United Nations to act in the Greek-Turkish situation.

"I know something about the United Nations," declared Eaton, breaking into testimony by the Rev. Alvin J. Smith, who urged the committee to rely upon U. N. rather than independent American action to aid the two countries in warding off Communist domination.

Smith represents the Methodist Federation for Social Action. Eaton has served as a consultant to American delegations at U. N. conferences.

"The U. N. has absolutely no funds to meet starvation throughout the world, Eaton said, and added that it has no military organization.

"The reason for that," he said, "is that the Russian delegate has exercised a continued veto—holding back, confusing and delaying—which has made it impossible to be ready now."

An Associated Press survey of the House Foreign Affairs Committee today shows a bi-partisan majority supporting President Truman's $400,000,000 measure to help Greece and Turkey fend off Communism.

Of the 25 members, 13 registered themselves in favor of the program in general terms. Five asked to be listed at this time as either undecided or noncommittal. The others were reported out of town.

The complexion of the committee on the measure—representing a potentially far-reaching shift in American diplomatic policy—became known as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee hastened to complete work on its own bill today.

That committee yesterday: Was reported to have given general approval to a compromise proposal giving the United Nations authority to halt the proposed American aid to Greece and Turkey only if the U. N. were prepared to take over the assistance itself.

Decided to insist upon Senate confirmation of the program's directors.

Agreed to stipulate that none of the funds could be used to pay old Greek and Turkish loans from other countries.

Adopted a preamble offered by Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and Connally (D-Tex.), saying that the United States action "will contribute to the freedom and independence of all members of the United Nations in conformity with the principles and purposes" of the U. N. charter.

Brushed aside amendments by Senator Murray (D-Mont.), to establish a joint congressional committee to supervise the program, to establish economic missions in Greece and Turkey, and to divide the program into two parts, one with $250,000,000 for Greece and $150,000,000 for Turkey.

Put over for action today proposals by Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), to strike any aid for Turkey from the bill, require the king of Greece to give up his throne as a condition of any assistance and to limit aid to that of a non-military nature.

State, City Are Named As 'Safety Winners'

Chicago, April 3 (AP)—The State of Connecticut and the city of Washington, D. C., were named today as grand award winners in the 1946 national traffic safety contest conducted by the National Safety Council.

The grand awards were for "doing the most that could be done" in traffic safety.

Connecticut had a mileage death rate of 4.9 (deaths per 100,000,000 vehicle miles) or about half the national rate.

Washington, D. C., cut its traffic death toll from 76 in 1945 to 59 in 1946.

Hoess Must Die For Deaths of Four Millions in Camp

By LARRY ALLEN

Warsaw, April 3 (AP)—Rudolf Hoess must pay with his own life for more than 4,000,000 lives snuffed out at Oswiecim (Auschwitz) extermination camp in the two and a half years he was Nazi commandant there.

The 47-year-old ex-colonel, on trial for three weeks, was sentenced to death last night by the nine-judge Polish supreme national tribunal. The condemned man, stocky and clean shaven and wearing a green German officer's uniform, was calm and attentive as he listened through headphones to the hour-long reading of the judgment. The courtroom was crowded.

Hoess is permitted to ask President Boleslaw Bierut for clemency.

Pacific Islands Are Under U.S. Control by U.N. Grant

Lage Success, N. Y., April 3 (AP)—The vast chains of Pacific islands where Japan mounted her attack against the United States officially went under American control today through Security Council approval of a United Nations strategic area trusteeship.

Four hours after the unanimous council decision last night, American Delegate Warren R. Austin boarded a train for Washington with the major victory in his pocket.

Austin won the significant triumph in a bitter round of closing debate, where Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko at one point abstained on a contested section rather than exercise the veto.

Commenting that "this demonstrates that the United Nations does work," Austin took the report to Capitol Hill, where he was called before a House committee to testify on expenditures of the American U. N. Delegation. Austin likewise advised his old colleagues in the Senate, which must finally ratify the agreement, but this was expected to be a routine step.

The agreement gives the United States sweeping rights, amounting

On being released from service in March 1946, he resumed his profession as a teacher in the New Paltz High School and has now resigned that position to accept the state counselor appointment.

If Storm Moves Faster It May Be Clear Easter

New York, April 3 (AP)—Those zany bonnets and the stylish dresses which feature Fifth avenue's traditional Easter parade may be dampened by an April downpour, the weather bureau dolefully forecast today.

Benjamin Parry, principal meteorologist, consulted his charts and gadgets and said a storm moving eastward from the far west likely would bring showers to the city Saturday night and Sunday morning.

But Parry brightened then and added the forecaster's inevitable "if"—of course, if the storm moves faster, there is a possibility that the rain may be over before Sunday's Easter parade.

Four Are Hurt, One Critically; Those Dead Between 50-70 Years

Clinton, Mo., April 3 (AP)—An explosion and gunpowder-fed fire destroyed a fireworks manufacturing plant yesterday, burning to death 11 of the 28 employees working in the one-story frame building and injuring four. One of the injured was in a critical condition. Ten of the victims died in the explosion and fire and the 11th succumbed in a Clinton hospital.

The workers were making toy buzz bombers in the Brown manufacturing company for Fourth of July sale. Shortly after the blast, the cause of which was not known, flames were so intense that firemen were unable to get closer than 100 yards from the building.

All of those who died were between 50 and 70 years old. The bodies, burned almost beyond recognition, were taken to the city hall where relatives came to make the identification. Some of the victims were so badly burned identification was only possible through rings and other personal effects or through teeth.

C. S. Knoles, a worker, said the flames swept through the building in a matter of minutes.

"By the time I got to a door, I could hardly find it because of the smoke," he said. "I could hear the girls behind me screaming. I closed my eyes and mouth and started for the road outside. When I reached it, I turned around. There was fire everywhere."

"I say it. I voice it. I proclaim it. And I care not who in heaven or hell opposes it."

At one point, Lewis accused Krug of "lying" and demanded "that he be removed from his high office."

Recalling the work agreement which he signed last year with Krug, he said:

"We knew that the coal operators wouldn't keep the mines safe. That's the reason why we asked Krug to do it."

"We promised me, didn't he? Or did he? Why, he signed it with me at the White House under the Kleig lights and the miners believed him. They didn't know he was lying. They know now that he was lying and they are joining me in demanding that he be removed from his high office."

Lewis called Krug:

"This modern Hercules with the number 12 shoe and the size five hat."

Scornfully, Lewis drewled that this "Hercules" had "reduced mine fatalities from 95 a month to 85 a month and then rested from his labors."

Eaton Places Blame on Russia for U.N. Inability

Washington, April 3 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today approved by a vote 13-0 legislation to carry out President Truman's program of extending $400,000,000 financial and limited military aid to Greece and Turkey.

Brushing aside proposals to eliminate Turkey as a beneficiary and to strip out the military aid provisions, the committee unanimously sent an amended bill to the Senate for expected action there next week.

Before acting, it revised an amendment by Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) to give the United Nations authority to call a halt on American assistance only when the international organization finds that assistance being provided by itself makes the continuance of American aid unnecessary.

Rep. Eaton (R-N.J.), of the House Foreign Affairs Committee bluntly blamed Russia today for inability of the United Nations to act in the Greek-Turkish situation.

"I know something about the United Nations," declared Eaton, breaking into testimony by the Rev. Alton J. Smith, who urged the committee to rely upon U.N. rather than independent American action to aid the two countries in warding off Communist domination.

Smith represents the Methodist Federation for Social Action.

Eaton has served as a consultant to American delegations at U.N. conferences.

"The U.N. has absolutely no funds to meet starvation," throughout the world, Eaton said, and added that it has no military organization.

"The reason for that," he said, "is that the Russian delegate has exercised a continued veto—holding back, confusing and delaying—which has made it impossible to be ready now."

An Associated Press survey of the House Foreign Affairs committee today shows a bi-partisan majority supporting President Truman's $400,000,000 measure to help Greece and Turkey fend off Communism.

Of the 25 members, 13 registered themselves in favor of the program in general terms. Five asked to be listed at this time as either undecided or noncommittal. The others were reported out of town.

The complexion of the committee on the measure—representing a potentially far-reaching shift in American diplomatic action—became known as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee hustled to complete work on its own bill today.

That committee yesterday: Was reported to have given general approval to a compromise proposal giving the United Nations authority to halt the proposed American aid to Greece and Turkey only if the U.N. were prepared to take over the assistance itself.

Decided to insist upon Senate confirmation of the program's directors.

Agreed to stipulate that none of the funds could be used to pay old Greek and Turkish loans from other countries.

Adopted a preamble offered by Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and Connally (D-Tex.), saying that the United States action "will contribute to the freedom and independence of all members of the United Nations in conformity with the principles and purposes" of the U.N. charter.

Brushed aside amendments by Senator Murray (D-Mont.), to establish a joint congressional committee to supervise the program, to establish economic missions in Greece and Turkey, and to divide the proposed $400,000,000 fund with $250,000,000 for Greece and $150,000,000 for Turkey.

Put over for action today proposals by Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), to strike any aid for Turkey from the bill, require the king of Greece to give up his throne as a condition of any assistance and to limit all aid to that of a non-military nature.

Meanwhile, the House Committee

Lage Success, N. Y., April 3

(AP)—The vast chains of Pacific islands where Japan mounted her attack against the United States officially went under American control today through Security Council approval of a United Nations strategic area trusteeship.

Four hours after the unanimous council decision last night, American Delegate Warren R. Austin boarded a train for Washington with the major victory in his pocket.

Austin won the significant triumph in a bitter round of closing debate, where Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko at one point abstained on a contested section rather than exercise the veto.

Commenting that "this demonstrates that the United Nations does work," Austin took the report to Capitol Hill, where he was called before a House committee to testify on expenditures of the American U. N. Delegation. Austin likewise advised his old colleagues in the Senate, which must finally ratify the agreement, but this was expected to be a routine step.

The agreement gives the United States sweeping rights, amounting to virtual annexation, under which the government may fortify the vital islands, close them at will for security reasons, and ban foreign aircraft.

As sole administering authority, the United States also reserved the right to reject any modification or alteration of the terms. This was the point where Gromyko raised his strongest objections, contending that the Council itself should hold such powers.

Covered in the agreement were all the former Japanese mandates, including the Marshalls, Marianas and Carolines which housed such well-known war bases as Saipan, Tinian, Truk, Kwajalein, Eniwetok and Majuro. The 634 islands sparsely settled, were described by Austin in debate as "vital to the security of the United States."

The Council was called back into session today for another attempt to dispose of Great Britain's mine-laying charges against Albania.

The British were reported ready to ask delegates to refer the charge to the International Court of Justice, Russia having vetoed a previous "decision" against the Soviet-sponsored Albanian Government, maintaining the case was without foundation and should be dropped.

Argentina may establish a federal police force similar to the FBI of the United States.

3-Hour Service At Fair Street Church on Friday

Good Friday afternoon in the Fair Street Reformed Church, the Rev. Dean Dykstra, pastor, will conduct Meditations of the Cross, a three-hour service, during which the senior choir will sing portions of the cantata "Calvary".

During the periods of worship lasting 25 minutes from 12 noon until 3 p. m., so arranged to permit worshippers to arrive and leave as they desire, clergymen of this vicinity will preach on the seven last words of Jesus.

Ministers, their subjects and time of their sermons are as follows:

12:00—"Father, Forgive Them," the Rev. Robert G. Dickson, Hurley.

12:55—"Behold Thy Son," the Rev. William Peckham, Clinton Avenue Methodist.

1:20—"I Thirst," the Rev. Frank B. Seelye, D.D.

1:45—"Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me," the Rev. Arthur Oudemool, First Dutch Reformed Church.

2:10—"It Is Finished," the Rev. J. Dean Dykstra.

2:35—"Father, Into Thy Hands I Commend My Spirit," the Rev. Raymond J. Pontier, Church of the Comforter.

Immanuel Lutheran Special Service Tonight

The annual Maundy Thursday service with Holy Communion will be held in Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church on Livingston street this evening. The confessional service will begin at 7:30 o'clock, and the regular service at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Ernest L. Witte will conclude his current series of Lenten meditations by preaching on the theme, "My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me?" The confessions of this year will receive their first communion in this service. The public is invited.

Senate Schedules Vote for Today on Lilienthal Matter

Washington, April 3 (AP)—President Truman's Senate lieutenants checked the membership roll name by name today in preparation for a vote they expect to spell defeat or victory in their drive to confirm David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

The vote—on a motion to send the nomination back to committee—was set for 5 p. m. today by unanimous consent of a Senate thoroughly saturated with seven days of less continuous debate.

The Chamber put in an 11 hour and 23 minute session yesterday, which kept members at their desks until nearly midnight.

The administration, deeply concerned by the 10-week delay since the nomination was sent up to Capitol Hill, made no attempt to minimize the importance of the recommission motion offered by Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), Monday.

Its objective is to permit an F.B.I. check of Lilienthal and the five other atomic set-up nominees and a further committee tussle into the people the commission members have hired since they took over their posts under recess appointments last winter before Congress convened.

Adoption of the motion would be tantamount to defeat of David Lilienthal, a highly placed strategist in close touch with the White House told a reporter. He said he believed that Lilienthal's supporters could muster a margin of "two or three" votes on the decisive roll call, however.

Such a close estimate of the final tally obviously means the outcome was in doubt.

Quonset Hut Becomes Local Plant

The Walter Smith Battery and Welding Service of Kingston and Milton will shortly open a modern office, sales and storage warehouse at 18 Downs street, near Broadway, where work is now nearing completion on the erection of a large Quonset hut structure. When the building is completed Mr. Smith will have offices and show rooms in the front portion of the building with a large stock room for supplies and at the rear a storage space for the several lines of merchandise which he carries.

Purchased through the Island Lock, Inc., local dealers, the Quonset hut type of building, made famous in all lands during World War 2, is 40 by 80 feet in size. A brick front is now practically completed and modern show windows will be placed in front. The front portion of the building is two stories in height.

Mr. Smith is engaged as a warehouse distributor for Prest-O-Lite batteries, acetylene, Linde oxygen, Prest-O-Weld equipment, P. & H. arc welders and electrodes and numerous other welding equipment and supplies. Oxygen for welding and also for hospital and medical purposes is carried in stock.

At present Mr. Smith also maintains a large storage warehouse at Milton from which supplies are distributed over his territory which includes several counties. When the Kingston plant is completed and in full operation much of the supplies now distributed from Milton will be handled through the Kingston warehouse, although the Milton plant will continue to operate. ### NEW HURLEY

New Hurley, April 2—Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs of East Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. Earl Devitt of Gardiner, were dinner guests of Miss Bertha Sutton Wednesday.

Mrs. Iva Low and daughter, Mrs. Myra Dolan, attended a meeting of the Harmony Club in Middletown Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Cocks spent the week-end with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Gill in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Booth and family moved from Walden Saturday. They will make their home with his father, C. E. Booth here.

Several from here attended the Lenten services in the Walden Reformed Church Sunday evening and heard a sermon delivered by the Rev. Franklin Hinkamp of the Poughkeepsie Reformed Church.

Elmer Fries was elected superintendent at the recent Sunday school meeting. Others elected included Lee Hammer and Albert Cronk, assistant superintendents; Norman Eckert, secretary; Frances Countryman, assistant secretary; and Mrs. William Powell, treasurer.

The women of the New Hurley Church are invited to a missionary meeting at the Walden Reformed Church on Wednesday afternoon April 9 at 3 o'clock.

At the communion services in New Hurley Church last Sunday

the following young people united with the church: Mary Lou Schoonmaker, Lucille Tyse, William Van Wyck, John Countryman, Alfred Van Wyck, and LeRoy Fries.

The Reformed Churches of Wallkill Valley will sponsor a clothing drive for the Church World Service during April. Clothing will be collected at each church and sent by truck to the warehouse in Long Island City.

Mrs. Gertrude Wilkin will arrange for Easter memorial flowers in the church. Flowers should be at the church Saturday afternoon. All names should be in by Friday.

The Sunday school worship service in the adult department of the Sunday school next Sunday will feature Easter hymns: "A Young People's Challenge," "Who Will Care?" by Anna Beatty, Alfred Van Wyck, Richard Schoonmaker, Charles Thompson, Frances Countryman and Susanna Denniston.

Also a candlelight consecration service by Elmer Fries, Jane Eckert and Marion Powell. In the junior department, Mary Lou Schoonmaker will lead, assisted by Richard Powell, Edwin Nelson, Lucille Tyse and John Gregg.

The Hope College Glee Club will sing at the Walden Reformed Church Friday evening, April 11.

The Wallkill Valley Community Chorus will present "The Crucifixion" and "Gethsemane" Easter Sunday night at the Walden Methodist Church at 8:15 o'clock. A free will offering will be taken.

Collyers Had 14 Pianos, Continuing Search Reveals

New York, April 3 (AP)—The number of pianos stowed amid the litter of their three-story house by the reclusive Collyer brothers was known today to be at least 14, with several junk-filled rooms still to be explored.

Searchers located four pianos yesterday along with two organs and two violins. Also brought to light were gramophone records dating back to 1898 offering such tunes as "Round Her Neck She Wears a Yellow Ribbon for Her Lover Who Is Fur Fur Away." And "Bugle Call" by Chief Trumpeter Cass of Roosevelt's Rough Riders.

The search was begun a week ago Monday after the disappearance of Langley Collyer, 61, last seen two weeks ago today. That was the day before police, responding to a telephoned message, found his blind brother Homer, 65, dead of natural causes in the house. The public administrator is conducting the search.

Senate Schedules Vote for Today on Lilienthal Matter

Washington, April 3 (AP)—President Truman's Senate lieutenants checked the membership roll name by name today in preparation for a vote they expect to spell defeat or victory in their drive to confirm David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

The vote—on a motion to send the nomination back to committee—was set for 5 p. m. today by unanimous consent of a Senate thoroughly saturated with seven days or less continuous debate.

The Chamber put in an 11 hour and 22 minute session yesterday, which kept members at their desks until nearly midnight.

The administration, deeply concerned by the 10-week delay since the nomination was sent up to Capitol Hill, made no attempt to minimize the importance of the recommissioning motion offered by Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), Monday.

Its objective is to permit an F.B.I. check of Lilienthal and the five other atomic set-up nominees and a further committee quiz into the people the commission members have hired since they took over their posts under recess appointments last winter before Congress convened.

"Adoption of the motion would be tantamount to defeat of David Lilienthal," a highly placed strategist in close touch with the White House told a reporter. He said he believed that Lilienthal's supporters could muster a margin of "two or three" votes on the decisive roll call, however.

Such a close estimate of the final tally obviously means the outcome was in doubt.

AFTER CATASTROPHE

As so often happens after a disaster, there is to be a federal investigation of the mine blast near Centralia, Ill., that took a death toll of more than 100 miners. The Senate in a voice vote passed a resolution by Senator Brooks of Illinois, that the senate public lands committee look into the whole matter. According to an Associated Press report the mine had been inspected by the Federal Coal Mines Administration in November, and in March, only a week before the explosion. The inspectors are said to have recommended that certain ventilation safety measures be increased in parts of the mine. The owners said they were working on those improvements. Some senate comment was to the effect that federal mine inspection cannot be enforced. The United Mine workers were inclined to blame the government and owners alike.

Here is the usual furore after an accident. Everybody accuses everybody else. Too often there is a lot of talk, a lot of time put in on a formal investigation, and then everybody forgets all about it—until another tragedy starts the process all over again.

COMMUNISTS

When such a personage as Federal Bureau of Investigation Chief J. Edgar Hoover says there is one Communist in this country to every 1,814 persons, and that the goal of American Communists is to overthrow this government, serious consideration must be given the whole Communist matter. Hoover further stated that New York leads the states with 30,000 Communists, followed by California with 8,500, Illinois with 6,500, and Ohio fourth with 3,800.

The F.B.I. head believes it is not his responsibility, but rather that of the Justice Department, to make recommendations and comments on the pending legislation to outlaw the Communist Party, as suggested by Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwellenbach.

It now seems undeniable that there are enough Communists in this country to be a threat to its present form of government, though not a serious threat if the situation is recognized.

RETAILERS CONCERNED

Reports of consumer resistance to the high cost of food and other goods comes from all parts of the country. Retailers, whose business depends upon a large and stable turnover, are definitely concerned.

The public should understand the position of the retailer in a matter such as this. He is literally caught in the middle, between high wholesale prices on the one hand and consumer demand for lower prices on the other. He is without control over the prices which enter into the final selling of products. The only thing he can do is to hold down his own cost of operation to the limit, so that the price increases may be as small and as few as possible.

Time will determine the future price trend. In the meantime your local retailer will give you the most possible for the least money.

MORE DAMAGE THAN GOOD

A warning against indiscriminate burning of grasslands and woodlots during the spring clean-up season has come from the commissioner of the Conservation Department.

Burning of fields and woods not only is generally unnecessary, but does more damage than good. Fields burned off are robbed of organic matter which, if plowed under, returns vital elements to the soil, keeping the soil enriched. Burning not only damaged timber but cover and nesting places for wild-life are destroyed.

OIL THE NEW FUEL

A technological revolution is pushing coal into the background. Oil is coming into use as a substitute fuel. An example of this trend is the statement by the president of the American Locomotive Co., Robert B. McColl, that 95 per cent of orders for new locomotives are for Diesel-electrics. Twelve years

THE ARITHMETIC OF MINUS

The tragedy of King Lear lies not so much in his generosity as in his lack of foresight. His misfortune was that he did not die soon enough to avoid witnessing the wreckage of his profitless benefactions. He gave up everything but the ghost:

"O, reason not the need; our basest beggars Are in the poorest thing superfluous: Allow not nature more than nature needs, Man's life is cheap as beast's . . ."

And then he added:

I have full cause of weeping; but this heart Shall break into a hundred thousand flaws; Or e'er I'll weep—O fool, I shall go mad!

And that, sadly enough, is Henry Wallace's problem, for Henry would give everything away, the atom bomb, the Panama Canal, our wealth, our synthetic rubber to keep the Malay coolies alive, a bottle of milk on every Fiji Island breakfast table, our little pigs to statistical policy—anything, everything to meet some need somewhere, but never our need, never with a view to our future. His profligacy is designed to win the hearts of the wicked to eternal goodness. It is like buying one's way into Heaven as one buys one's way into a crowded night club by suborning the headwaiter. Like his political ancestor, Franklin D. Roosevelt, he would have nations into friendship, not recognizing that among the immoral, gratitude is an anticipation of favors yet to come.

This country can continue to do good to others without regard to its own future until nothing is left but a defenseless poverty, a shambles of good intentions. Henry Wallace would have the United Nations take an international control, undoubtedly to the management of the Social Democratic master of devious maneuver, Trygve Lie, who sits here in New York, the manipulator of UN, and lets loose propaganda to influence American policy, and to the veto of Gromyko, the Russian, who rejects everything but an outright gift.

If we are internationalizing the Panama Canal, why not the White House? Why build the magnificent mansions on the East River where UN will seek to rule the world but even more the United States? Why not house this institution in the Congress of the United States, dispossessing the representatives of the American people as native Americans are being removed from their homes, factories and churches to make room for the approaches to the UN office buildings?

If there is logic in the affairs of men, any proposal as good as Henry Wallace's or even of those who so fear criticism from the Wallaceites that they would submit every scintilla of sovereign judgment to a majority vote of either the UN Security Council or Assembly or to anything that smacks of the recipients of our bounty setting the terms upon which the bounty is to be increased.

There are those who believe that Henry Wallace is twisted and confused, but I have recently set myself the task of reading what the gentleman has written and spoken these many years and have reached the conclusion that the peculiarities are feigned to form a pattern of leadership.

Henry Wallace is an astute political operator the smartest produced in all the New Deal, for he alone survives of that host of wise men—survives to make headlines, radio time, and to confuse the minds of men by twisting the platitudes of politics into the chimeras of cloudy idealism.

And all the time, he is a candidate for the Presidency. His candidacy is now based upon two contingents:

1. The inevitability of a depression from which he alone can by scientific precision rescue this country.

2. The inevitability of war with Russia unless a policy of permanent appeasement is adopted.

In each domestic and foreign crisis, Henry Wallace becomes a leader in opposition. It does not matter whether the President be Democrat or Republican, Henry Wallace will oppose. Unfortunately for him, as well as for the United States, the opposition he builds is opposition to America. It is a revolutionary opposition that ultimately would hand this country to its enemy. It is what Karolyi of Hungary did to his country when he paved the way for Bela Kun.

That Body of Yours

SPECIALISTS TO TREAT TEEN-AGERS

Many of us, as we watch the foolish or childish actions of growing boys in their teens, may wonder what will happen to them in the days to come. War breaks out and we find these same boys doing manly and brave things and conclude after all these boys will make good.

Similarly with our growing girls, the bobby soxers as they are called, and the way they will line up for a favorite bandmaster or singer. These same girls under stress seem to measure up as did their mothers before them when hard work or endurance is required.

However, physicians now recognize the fact that our boys and girls in their late teens require special care. For years we have known pediatricians who treat the special needs of children and lately we have seen the special care given old men and women by specialists—geriatricians. Apparently adult and middle aged men and women can be cared for sufficiently by the family physician, as they present no special symptoms requiring a specialist.

To overcome the difficulties, physical, mental and emotional, physicians are studying methods of dealing with the teen-age boys and girls as they emerge into manhood and womanhood. It is called the adolescent age at which time in their lives they present certain normal and abnormal symptoms.

Some of the abnormal symptoms, or what appear to be abnormal, are due to mental or emotional development not keeping pace with their physical development. I have examined many thousands of growing boys and hundreds of growing girls at the adolescent age and have been unable to establish what could be called normal physical development for age, height and weight.

What has physical development to do with mental and emotional development?

A boy or girl, 15 to 17, may have the physical development of an "average" boy or girl of 18 to 20. As they are only as old mentally and emotionally as their age in years they may find themselves in difficulties because as much common sense and emotional stability is expected of them as if they were 20 or 30 years older.

Builders are distressed, says a commentator, at the lack of interest in houses priced over $10,000. This is cheering news. The people generally know what they want. Why not give it to them?

The Women's Society of Christian Service will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hallock Harris. Reports will be made on the progress made by members in preparing material for woven rugs, and of the receipts of the turkey dinner.

The regular child health consultation and clinic for infants and pre-school children of the Town of Plattekill was held Wednesday in Hasbrouck Memorial Hall. Dr. Peter F. Lordi of Highland was in charge, assisted by Miss Wilma Petroff, R. N., and members of the Public Health Nursing Committee of the Town of Plattekill. Mrs. Roy Jensen furnished transportation. The anti-diphtheria serum was given at this time.

Burial was made in the Modena Rural cemetery, on Friday, of Mrs. Jennie DuBois Alsford, widow of George Alsford, former resident of Modena. Mrs. Simon DuBois of this village is a surviving daughter. The late Mr. and Mrs. Alsford formerly owned and operated the dairy farm now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Powell.

Mrs. Albert Molson and Mrs. Lester Wager were visitors in Poughkeepsie, Tuesday.

Miss Bertha Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powell of New Hurley, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Dusinberre and son, Horace, recently.

Carl Sebeth of Middletown, Mrs. Ruth Enders and daughter, Barbara Philips of Poughkeepsie, were recent visitors here.

During the severe storm of the past week, trees were blown down, considerable property damage done and electric and telephone service interrupted. Large hemlock trees bordering the Modena Rural Cemetery were felled by the wind severing electric wires in that vicinity.

Students attending the Wall-Kill Central School are having an extended Easter vacation. Studies will be resumed Monday, April 14. The Modena school was closed at Friday noon, earlier than scheduled, owing to an epidemic of severe colds among teachers and students.

Louise Byrne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Byrnes, also Ray Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Riley of the Ardona section, are among graduates of the 1947 class of the Highland High School.

Burton Traver of Rhinebeck, Solie Bernard Jr., and daughter, Sharon Lee of Poughkeepsie, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernard and family.

The minstrel presented Wednesday evening in the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall by members of the Clintondale 4-H Club was well presented and well attended. Proceeds will benefit the Modena and Clintondale 4-H Clubs.

Regular spring work has commenced on the highways in the Town of Plattekill.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Receive Eagle Rank

Two scouts of the southern district of the Ulster-Greene Council, Thomas A. Adams of Tarrytown, and Peter Rider, Explorer Post, 70, Highland, received their eagle ranks recently at the Highland Central School during the spring rally.

Scout Atkins was awarded his badge by his father and Scout Rider received his from William Jordan, assistant district commissioner. John Gow, Jr., Marlborough, district commissioner, received his scoutmaster's training key from Herb Bell, district chairman.

Mr. Bell said that the affair was well attended and that he felt optimistic about prospects for the development of real scouting in the southern district during the coming year.

Western Group Makes Plans
Objectives for the coming year were made at a recent meeting of the western district officers held at the rectory in Phoenixia. Plans adopted provide for a district board of review, April 25; district committee meeting and scoutmasters' round-table, April 10; district board of review, May 16; camporee, May 23, 24 and 25; an overnight camp training session for scouters of the district June 28 and 29; a board of review, September 3; fall camporee, September 5 and 6; and district scouters' ladies' night September 11.

Those participating in the planning were the Rev. Edward Barry, district chairman; Fred Decker, commissioner; the Rev. Thomas Leary, training chairman; Walter Van Wagenen, representing the scoutmasters; and Clifford Carnwright, vice-chairman.

District calendars are now being prepared for each unit in the district.

Twenty and Ten Years Ago

April 3, 1927—Mayor E. J. Dempsey reappointed Mrs. Thomas J. Hickey to the health board. Records kept by Peter H. Osterhoudt of Oak street, showed a fall of six feet, seven inches of snow in the city between December 5 and March 28.

Mrs. Charles Van Leuven died suddenly at her home in Sloatsburg.

April 3, 1937—Plans were announced near completion for the Kingston Food Shop at the Kingston Municipal Auditorium from April 12 to 17.

Miss Elizabeth Murphy, daughter of Nicholas D. J. Murphy and John Bott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bott, were married at St. Mary's Church.

Patrolman Howard Kinch, who was injured when thrown from a horse on the Burgevin farm, was removed to his home from the Kingston Hospital.

C. I. O. Report on Steel Business and Ability to Raise Wages Is Given as One of Causes of Irritation

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, April 3—C.I.O. economists have figured out from a survey of 19 steel companies, representing 90 per cent of ingot capacity, that a substantial wage boost can be given without raising prices or seriously impairing profits.

This is an interesting illustration of why America is facing more and more misunderstanding and friction between labor and management. The C.I.O. report is, of course, one-sided and disregards the responsibility of management to protect the steel business for the future and the price of steel in the American economic system.

The report selects a 30-cent-an-hour wage rise and he says if steel companies operate at 95 per cent of capacity the profits would be $136,000,000 without a price rise, but neglects to point out that 40 per cent of such profits must go for federal taxes and a substantial sum in addition for state taxes. Out of the $81,600,000 of profits remaining after federal taxes, the 19 companies must set aside ample reserves for the future and also pay a fair return to the investors or run the risk of not being able to raise money when borrowing or investing becomes necessary in the money-raising markets.

Latest figures show that the steel companies earned only 6.2 per cent on their net worth from 1941 to 1945 and in 1946, which was their best peacetime year from the standpoint of demand, they earned only 7.3 per cent.

Then, too, there is apparently no consideration given by the C.I.O. to the cycle of years. If business men increased wages and thereby raised their fixed charges on the basis of abnormal earnings in any given year, they would find themselves loaded with a heavy fixed expense at a subsequent time when demand falls off and mills in the steel business, for instance, are compelled to run at reduced capacity.

The amount of misrepresentation of the profits of companies being circulated by labor-union "economists" these days is matched only by the misinformation distributed by naive commencapital business and do not know the first thing about reserves needed to keep a business operating over a period of years when demand and prices of materials bought are subject to cyclical fluctuations.

The average observer would jump to the conclusion that there is a simple answer to this problem of risk—namely, to devise profit-sharing systems whereby, as profits go up or down, the workers share the risks with the management. But if there is any labor union in the national field which has ever endorsed the idea of binding workers by contract to share losses with the stockholders, while allowing management to determine suitable reserves for depressions or falling markets, this writer has never heard of any such national union.

The modern labor leader is willing to talk profits when they are high. But when a depression occurs, as it did in 1932, and companies like those in the steel business suffer a drastic drop in earnings, the cry is loud and vigorous that corporations should pay for employee wages out of reserves and keep production going and prevent plants from closing their furnaces.

The labor unions certainly cannot have it both ways. They cannot insist that the measure of wages should be the profits earned in good years and that there be no wage cuts when demand falls off.

Everybody knows that the steel business is good today largely because the backlog of demand from the war years has not been satisfied and probably will not be for another year or more. To raise wages by extreme calculations now is to force price increases either now or when demand falls. The construction industry is deeply interested in the price of steel and so is the auto industry. If the steel companies could be guaranteed for five years or more their present level of profits, they could take chances with a higher wage level. But the C.I.O. isn't going to underwrite the profits of the steel companies or the level of demand in the next five years, nor is the C.I.O. going to be able to defend itself from criticism. If its pressure for wage increases puts the fixed-expense items of the steel companies so high that America, for many years to come, must pay an abnormally high price for its steel.

The true economic statesmanship which now is lacking will come only when economists for labor unions present all sides of the picture and prove that, after taxes, profits are adequate to warrant a fair return on capital invested and that demand is going to continue for a fixed period ahead. But this kind of analysis will be valueless unless labor unions are willing to agree, as a condition of wage boosts based on capacity to pay, that they will, without strikes or threat of strikes, accept an equally extreme reduction in wages when demand falls off or when consumer resistance is such that price reductions must be granted. It is not enough to cite figures of profits before taxes without comparing the average earnings after taxes for a five or ten-year period and the amount of reserves laid aside to preserve a business against enforced liquidation when times get bad.

It is apparent that the amount of ignorance about the operations of our profit-and-loss system is tragic and that this is one of the main causes of labor-management friction which neither laws nor strikes can cure but which education alone can clarify. (Reproduction Rights Reserved)

Spring Cleaning By City Crews Is In Progress Now

Spring cleaning and repair work of the Board of Public Works is in progress in the city this week as street patrolling and clean-up crews continued work in various sections. Work programs to be started at the baseball season of the Municipal Stadium is under way.

Ernest A. Steuding, superintendent of public works said today and the parking meter stations are expected to be ready for installation of the slot units next week. A meeting was also scheduled for this afternoon at the Athletic Field, Cornell street, for discussion of plans in preparation for conditioning the field for use by the Department of Recreation. It is planned to erect a suitable backdrop and benches at the field. The preliminary clean-up work has been completed and the field will be conditioned with rollers within a few days.

BPW workmen are also preparing for the start of the North Front street project Monday and the chairman, superintendent, said today that stone cutters have been at work on the stadium grounds for several days preparing the cutting to be installed on the street.

Painting of the parking meter standards and strips to be placed near them is expected to be completed by Tuesday.

It is planned to install all of the slots in one day and Chief of Police Ernest A. Boss will have a special announcement to the public when they are ready for use.

New Rotational Record Claimed by G. E. Company

Schenectady, N. Y., April 3 (AP) — A new world record for rotation at speed—propulsion of a wheel at 123,000 revolutions per minute—is claimed by the General Electric Company, the old mark was 115,000 revolutions per minute.

The new record, involving rapid shafts only, was achieved on a microtome, a device used to slice ultra-thin specimens of plastic, metal, textile animal or plant tissue and bacteria for examination under an electron microscope, the company said.

T. F. Pullan, GE scientist, explained last night that the microtome is a three horse power motor rated at 120,000 revolutions per minute. It is enclosed and operated in a vacuum similar to that in a radio tube.

When the three and a half inch wheel travels at full speed its cutting knife—a specially treated piece of razor blade—moves at a rate of 1,800 feet per second, or 1,282 miles per hour, he added.

England has given no more in successive exhibition of determination to whip her economic crisis and defend her interests, it now and then we have just witnessed in the parliament.

It is planned to install all of the slots in one day and Chief of Police Ernest A. Boss will have a special announcement to the public when they are ready for use.

That measure is a five month providing as it does for the calling up of some 200,000 men between 18 and 26 annually for service in the armed forces. It comes in the midst of a grave economic crisis.

Britain is living in fiscal austerity on borrowed money and it is essential industries are being because of lack of manpower.

Moreover, owing to the shortage of miners the country for weeks has been without adequate fuel and light because of scarcity of coal. And to make the cup of misery overflow, England has been wading through hell and high water due to unprecedented storms and floods.

Could one imagine a tougher moment in which to present a bill for the conscription of manpower into the army, the navy and the air force? Yet the Socialist government is determined to keep the country on an armed footing which will provide adequate defense and maintain Britain's prestige as one of the Big Three. And in this emergency the Conservatives who politically are the mortal foe of the Socialists, turned to and supported the government when it was faced with a split in its own party.

What happened was that a considerable left wing section of the Labor (Socialist) Party deserted the government over this issue—enough so that Prime Minister Attlee's ministry might have been overthrown if the big Conservative minority had joined with the Socialist dissidents. But former Prime Minister Churchill led his followers into the fight for Attlee with the result that the measure was adopted by a vote of 386 to 85—a result which doesn't show the full extent of the Leftist revolt, since quite a bloc of members refused to vote.

Conscription was opposed on several grounds. Those who thought it maintained that industry needs men more than do the armed forces, that conscription is inconsistent with Labor Party policy and that the cost of the armed services is excessive. Some extreme Leftists also opposed it as being hostile to Russia.

The Conscription Act would run for five years and Defense Minister Alexander says that by 1954 it would produce a trained reserve of 700,000. At present Britain has some 1,500,000 men on active service—a tremendous fighting machine. The government is trying to reduce this number to 1,000,000 by March 31, 1948—still a great force.

With all this evidence at hand can any doubt that John Bull not only is determined to see his crisis through but that he has faith in himself? That's a question of vast importance in these days when the world unhappily is divided into two camps, and Britain is siding with America.

The indications are that the British public in general is united on foreign policy. This view is strengthened by the he-partisan vote on the Conscription Bill because Socialists and Tories are shing bed-fellows under ordinary circumstances. There are vast differences of opinion on how to handle some imperial problems—India for example—but not so much where British foreign interests are involved.

England has given no more impressive exhibition of determination to whip her economic crisis and defend her interests at home and abroad than we have just witnessed in the circumstances surrounding the passage of the peace-time conscription bill through its second (and decisive) reading in the House of Commons.

That measure is a live bomb, providing as it does for the calling up of some 200,000 men between 18 and 26 annually for service in the armed forces. It comes in the midst of a grave economic crisis. There had been a lot of hogs missing in a certain locality and every one had strong suspicions of a certain individual, but could prove nothing on him. A farmer who one day got in a large shipment of hogs sent for this character and said, "Look, Sam, I'll give you your pick of any two of these hogs if you'll promise to leave the rest alone." "Well, all right," agreed the other reluctantly, "but I'm gonna lose a lotta good meat on this deal."

Bowersox—Before Henry Peck was married he said he would be the boss in his own house or know the reason why.

Conybear—And now he's married?

Bowersox—Yes—and he knows the reason why.

The fashion started by Marlene Dietrich led Jack Connolly of news reel fame to say:

"I went into a tailor's the other day and asked: 'Anything new in men's clothes?'"

"Yes, women," said the clerk, and he flashed a picture on me of Marlene in dinner jacket and trousers.

Good Friday at Y.M.C.A.

Usual activities at the Y.M.C.A. will be suspended from 12 to 3 p.m. tomorrow in observance of Good Friday, it was announced today. The customary Saturday night dance also will not be held.

Jerusalem City Ceremony Locale For 3 Religions

Jerusalem, April 3 (AP)—Three great religions—Christian, Moslem and Jewish—held ceremonies today in the Holy City to commemorate events revered by their millions of faithful.

Western Christians—Roman Catholics and Protestants—celebrated the day as Maundy Thursday, harking back to Jesus Christ's Last Supper with his apostles before his betrayal in the Garden of Gethsemane and his crucifixion on Calvary.

Moslems began prayers for the feast of Nebi Musa—the Prophet Moses, honored by them as well as by Christians and Jews—to lead up to a pilgrimage to the prophet's shrine in the desert near Heiricho and the Dead Sea in commemoration of his death.

Jews cleansed homes and utensils in preparation for their "Seder" feasts at sunset tomorrow opening the eight-day Passover.

Because they use a different calendar from that in use in the West, eastern Catholic churches—Greek Orthodox, Armenian, Coptic, Jacobite and others—will celebrate Holy Week later this year.

Maundy (Mandate) Thursday gets its name from the new commandment Jesus gave his apostles at the Last Supper in the upper room: "That ye love one another."

In Roman Catholic rituals today, Patriarch Louis Barlassini

celebrated a pontifical high Mass at dawn and, planned a foot washing ceremony in the afternoon, both in front of the Holy Sepulchre. Services were scheduled tonight in the Mount Zion Shrine—the Cenacle—supposedly on the site of the upper room. Processions through the old city also were planned for the day.

Among the Protestants, the first major observance of the few days before Easter will be a prayer service conducted by Anglican Bishop Weston Steward in the Garden of Gethsemane tonight.

Conferees on Portal Pay Try to Reach Compromise

Washington, April 3 (AP)—House and Senate conferees, confronted by what one member described as "substantial differences" in anti-portal pay legislation, today tackled the task of reaching a compromise.

Once that is accomplished it remains to be seen whether President Truman will sign or veto the bill. There has been predictions of a veto.

The No. 1 aim of the bills passed by both Houses is to erase liability for $6,000,000,000 in back pay claims against industry. These resulted from a Supreme Court ruling that wages could be sought for non-productive activities controlled by the employer, such as portable-portal walking time.

The conferees committees organized yesterday, naming Senator Donnell (R-Mo.), as chairman. Members said "there appears to be every disposition to get down to business."

LEARN TO DANCE

The Rhythmic Rumba

When the orchestra switches from fox trots to rhythmic rumbas, do you murmur an excuse and decide to sit this one out? You're missing lots of fun! The rumba is actually not at all difficult to learn. The rumba basic step has the same pattern and rhythm as the fox trot, only the steps are shorter.

Try this simple square, keeping your feet flat on the floor, with 1—Quickly take a short step to the side on the left foot. 2—Quickly close with right foot. 3—Slowly step forward with the left foot. Pause. On counts 3 and 4 reverse the figure starting with the right foot. As you lightly shift your weight from foot to foot, sway your hips subtly.

Add a break here, a turn there, and presto—you're rumbaing! It's simple, too, to learn the waltz, samba, slow, medium and fast fox trot, tango and lindy. All explained by a leading dance authority in our new Reader Service booklet No. 37. Illustrated with photographs and diagrams.

Cancer Control Topic at Ulster County Meetings

Ulster county authorities on cancer control in the interest of the American Cancer Society is a national campaign, which is being held here this month, have delivered addresses on the subject throughout the county. Ulster county's quota has been set at $7,500. The national goal is $12,000,000.

At New Paltz, Dr. George James, Ulster county commissioner of health, addressed an audience of 55 members of the Paltz Club on the subject "Public Health Aspects of Cancer Control." The film, "Time to Live" was shown.

Mrs. Walter Hasbrouck is captain of the New Paltz field army. At Ellenville, Dr. Spottswood Taylor, pathologist of the Kingston Laboratory, addressed 75 members and guests of Hadassah on the subject, "Answers to Questions on Various Phases of Cancer."

At Shawangunk, Mrs. Kenneth Duncan, county commander of the American Cancer Society talked to 30 members and guests of the Ladies Aid and Missionary Societies of the Dutch Reformed Church on the subject, "Facts About Cancer."

At Wallkill, Mrs. Duncan also addressed 40 members and guests of the American Legion Auxiliary on the subject, "Your Part in Cancer Control." Mrs. Jesse McHugh is captain of the Wallkill field army.

At Modena, Dr. Taylor talked to 16 members of the Home Bureau on the subject, "Early Diagnosis in Cancer." The meeting was sponsored by the public health nursing committee. Mrs. Lillian Courter is captain of the Modena field army.

British Say Two Soldiers Injured

Jerusalem, April 3 (AP)—The British army announced that two soldiers of the Sixth Airborne Division were injured severely today when a mine blew a three-ton truck off a road in the Hader Hacamel section of Haifa.

The announcement said the mine, disguised as a milestone, had been detonated from a nearby apartment building. The army reported the buildings were being searched.

In the meantime, the Jewish underground organization, issued as a "communiqué" today a statement it said was written by four of its members now under death sentence in Jerusalem prison, asking the Jewish people to halt appeals for clemency in their behalf.

Search to Be Renewed For Bennington Student

Bennington, Vt., April 3 (AP)—As soon as conditions are right, investigators plan to renew an organized search of Glastonbury Mountain trails in a hunt for leads that might solve the disappearance of Paula Welden, 18, Bennington College sophomore.

The pretty Stamford, Conn., girl, who vanished last December, was last seen near a trail leading to the mountain, but several searches of mountain roads failed to turn up clues before snow buried the area.

The decision to renew the hunt was reached by Lt. Robert N. Rundle and Lt. Dorothy Scoville of the Connecticut State Police, who made their reappearance here this week after a long period of inactivity in this area.

They were originally assigned to the search at the request of the girl's father, W. Archibald Welden, an industrial engineer. Welden also spent one night here during the week.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Kick-Back
Clayton, N. M., April 3 (AP)—A kick-back broke Paul Miller's leg.

The young Seneca rancher said he kicked an old bull to bury him into a corral.
The bull kicked back.

Silver Lining
Ann Arbor, Mich., April 3 (AP)—Seven-year-old Allison Brown wore her mother's $2,200 diamond and sapphire ring to school to show it to her young friends, but it was missing when she got home.

Police and Boy Scouts searched for it until Allison's mother, Mrs. E. Gatz Brown, reported everything had turned out all right. She found the ring in the lining of Allison's coat.

Wasted Sympathy
Detroit, April 3 (AP)—Even a live duck can stand plenty of refrigeration, a conservation official told solicitous Detroiters. Isaac Peabody suggested residents living near the Detroit river were wasting their time excitedly telephoning the river conservation department that "there's a little duck out here whose bottom is frozen in the water."

Peabody explained: "A duck can stand zero weather. Leave him alone and he'll melt his way out of an iceberg. It's the tender-hearted people who got out with ice picks and steaming tentacles who are hurting the little ducks—breaking their legs and wings."

Pardon Me Motorist
Cedar Rapids, Ia., April 3 (AP)—Oliver J. Swab fell in the street and seeing a car bearing down on him he rose quickly and jumped onto the hood of Walker Whitmore's auto.

But Whitmore, attempting to avoid striking Swab, swerved and struck a car driven by F.W. Black. "I don't want to be the cause of accidents," said Swab, who suffered only bruises. He agreed to pay repair of both cars.

J. F. Dolan Dies
Wilmington, Del., April 3 (AP)—J. Frank Dolan, noted Canadian sportsman and former player for the St. Louis Browns, died yesterday. He pitched for Manhattan college and later went to the Connecticut State League. He was with the Browns for one season and then developed arm trouble, winding up with Ottawa in the Canadian League, where he played under Frank Slaughter.

Barbers Restrict Cuts
The Bolton Hardnesses' Association complained bitterly that Gwyn Roberts, half-back of the Bolton Wanderers, prominent British Rugby team, and a barber by trade, was cutting his fellow players' hair. The players at first thought the matter a joke, but finally agreed to have their trims by the local barbers, provided the latter did not play professional football as a sideline.

Eisenhower Has Volunteer Plan To Increase Army

An intensified drive for volunteers to offset the end of selective service will be based on a five-point program for strengthening the U. S. Army recruiting service, Major Gen. St. Clair Streett, U. S. Army chief of Military Personnel Procurement Service, announced today.

Plans for the next fiscal year call for a volunteer army of 1,070,000 and to achieve its goal the Recruiting Service will have 1,014 commissioned officers, 4,867 enlisted men, and 1,356 civilians on the job.

The office plans stabilization of the recruiting force by placing all enlisted men on detached duty with the service and reducing turnovers resulting of transfers.

It plans generally a strengthening of forces at headquarters and improvement of the quality of the service by increasing the percentage of noncommissioned officers. Sixty per cent of the force will be made up of noncommissioned officers of the first three grades.

This has been accomplished in part by the detail of 1,700 noncommissioned officers from the Army Air Forces.

The office will also improve training methods at the Army Information School, Carlisle, Pa. It calls for extension of the school period and concentration on problems of salesmanship and public relations.

The plan is expected to put to test the observation of Chief of Staff Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower that "From now on we are engaged in a great test, to see whether a system traditionally American in peacetime—the volunteer system—can give us the stable well-trained Regular Army our current international commitments require."

A recent report of the Recruiting Service shows that while draft calls were suspended after November 1, 1946, more than 100,000 volunteers have been recruited since then, and that more than 1,130,923 men have enlisted since the start of the voluntary recruiting campaign, while the number drafted was only 308,141.

The Liberty Bell was cracked on July 8, 1935.

Jerusalem City Ceremony Locale For 3 Religions

Jerusalem, April 3 (AP)—Three great religions—Christian, Moslem and Jewish—held ceremonies today in the Holy City to commemorate events revered by their millions of faithful.

Western Christians—Roman Catholics and Protestants—celebrated the day as Maundy Thursday, harking back to Jesus Christ's Last Supper with his apostles before his betrayal in the Garden of Gethsemane and his crucifixion on Calvary.

Moslems began prayers for the feast of Nohi Musa—the Prophet Moses, honored by them as well as by Christians and Jews—to lead up to a pilgrimage to the prophet's shrine in the desert near Hericho and the Dead Sea in commemoration of his death.

Jews cleansed homes and utensils in preparation for their "Seder" feasts at sunset tomorrow opening the eight-day Passover.

Because they use a different calendar from that in use in the west, eastern Catholic churches—Greek Orthodox, Armenian, Coptic, Jacobite and others—will celebrate Holy Week later this year.

Maundy (Mandate) Thursday gets its name from the new commandment Jesus gave his apostles at the Last Supper in the upper room: "That ye love one another."

In Roman Catholic rituals today, Patriarch Louis Barlassina

Cancer Control Topic at Ulster County Meetings

Ulster county authorities on cancer control in the interest of the American Cancer Society financial campaign, which is being held here this month, have delivered addresses on the subject throughout the county. Ulster county's quota has been set at $7,500. The national goal is $12,000,000.

At New Paltz, Dr. George James, Ulster county commissioner of health, addressed an audience of 55 members of the Paltz Club on the subject "Public Health Aspects of Cancer Control." The film, "Time to Live" was shown. Mrs. Walter Hasbrouck is captain of the New Paltz field army.

At Ellenville, Dr. Spottiswood Taylor, pathologist of the Kingston Laboratory, addressed 75 members and guests of Hadassah on the subject, "Answers to Questions on Various Phases of Cancer." Mrs. William Litchford is captain of the Ellenville field army.

At Shawangunk, Mrs. Kenneth Duncan, county commander of the American Cancer Society talked to 30 members and guests of the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies of the Dutch Reformed Church on the subject, "Facts About Cancer."

At Walkkill, Mrs. Duncan also addressed 40 members and guests of the American Legion Auxiliary on the subject, "Your Part in Cancer Control." Mrs. Jesse McHugh is captain of the Walkkill field army.

At Modena, Dr. Taylor talked to 16 members of the Home Bureau on the subject, "Early Diagnosis in Cancer." The meeting was sponsored by the public health nursing committee. Mrs. Lillian Courter is captain of the Modena field army.

Search to Be Renewed For Bennington Student

Bennington, Vt., April 3 (AP)—As soon as conditions are right, investigators plan to renew an organized search of Glastonbury Mountain trails in a hunt for leads that might solve the disappearance of Paula Weiden, 18, Bennington College sophomore.

The pretty Stamford, Conn. girl, who vanished last December, was last seen near a trail leading to the mountain, but several searches of mountain roads failed to turn up clues before snow buried the area.

The decision to renew the hunt was reached by Lt. Robert N. Randle and Lt. Dorothy Scoville of the Connecticut State Police, who made their reappearance here this week after a long period of inactivity in this area.

They were originally assigned to the search at the request of the girl's father, W. Archibald Weiden, an industrial engineer. Weiden also spent one night here during the week.

Ready to Return to Seaside Resort

Hollywood, Fla., April 3 (AP)—William Lawrence Cimillo, 37, who drove a 44-passenger bus on an unauthorized trip from New York to this seaside resort, was ready today to return—by plane or train. Two detectives arrived yesterday to take Cimillo back to face an indictment charging him with grand larceny of the $18,000 vehicle. A representative of the Surface Transportation Company also arrived to drive the bus back.

LEARN TO DANCE

The Rhythmic Rumba
When the orchestra switches from fox trots to rhythmic rumba, do you murmur an excuse and decide to sit this one out? You're missing lots of fun! The rumba is actually not at all difficult to learn. The rumba basic step has the same pattern and rhythm as the fox trot, only the steps are shorter.

Try this simple square, keeping your feet flat on the floor, with 1—Quickly take a short step to the side on the left foot. 2—Quickly close with right foot. 3—Slowly, step forward with the left foot. 4—Pause. On counts 3 and 4 reverse the figures, starting with the right foot. As you lightly shift your weight from foot to foot, sway your hips subtly.

Add a break here, a turn there, and presto—you're rumba-ing! It's simple, too, to learn the ritz, samba, slow, medium and fast fox trot, tango and lindy. All explained by a leading dance authority in our new Reader Service booklet No. 37. Illustrated with photographs and diagrams.

Send 25¢ (coin) for "How To Do the Latest Dance Steps" to Kingston Daily Freeman, Reader Service, 243 West 17th St., New York 11, N. Y. Print name, address, booklet title and No. 37.

British Say Two Soldiers Injured

Jerusalem, April 3 (AP)—The British army announced that two soldiers of the Sixth Airborne Division were injured severely today when a mine blew a three-ton truck off a road in the Hadar Hacarmel section of Haifa.

The announcement said the mine, disguised as a milestone, had been detonated from a nearby apartment building. The army reported the buildings were being searched.

In the meantime, the Jewish underground organization issued as a "communiqué" today a statement it said was written by four of its members now under death sentence in Jerusalem prison, asking the Jewish people to halt appeals for clemency in their behalf.

PIN-WORM MYSTERY ENDED

Pin-Worms have been causing trouble for centuries, and millions of victims have desperately sought a way to deal with this pest that lives inside the human body.

Science has at last solved the problem! It is now also known that Pin-Worm infection spreads rapidly and can cause real distress if neglected. So beware of that aggravating rectal itch and get fast. Ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W at the first sign of Pin-Worms. P-W is a medically sound treatment based on an officially approved drug principle. The easy-to-take P-W tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms easily and safely.

It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!

Bomber Gets Test
San Diego, Calif., April 3 (AP)—A long, slim experimental plane powered by four axial-flow jets and described by its builders as the fastest bomber produced in this country flew from here to Muroc Dry Lake on its initial test hop of one hour and 33 minutes yesterday. There the Consolidated-Vultee XB-46, the second jet propelled bomber built in the United States, will undergo further tests by the army. Exact speed of the XB-46 on the test flight was kept secret.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Kick-Back
Clayton, N. M., April 3 (AP)—A kick-back broke Paul Miller's leg.

The young Seneca rancher said he kicked an old bull to hurry him into a corral.

The bull kicked back.

Silver Lining
Ann Arbor, Mich., April 3 (AP)—Seven-year-old Allison Brown wore her mother's $2,200 diamond and sapphire ring to school to show it to her young friends, but it was missing when she got home.

Police and Boy Scouts searched for it until Allison's mother, Mrs. B. Gatz Brown, reported everything had turned out all right.

She found the ring in the lining of Allison's coat.

Wasted Sympathy
Detroit, April 3 (AP)—Even a live duck can stand plenty of refrigeration, a conservation official told solicitous Detroiters.

Isaac Peabody suggested residents living near the Detroit river were wasting their time excitedly telephoning the river conservation department that "there's a little duck out here whose bottom is frozen in the water."

Peabody explained: "A duck can stand zero weather. Leave him alone and he'll melt his way out of an iceberg. It's the tender-hearted people who got out with ice picks and steaming teakettles who are hurting the little ducks—breaking their legs and wings."

Pardon Me Motorist
Cedar Rapids, Ia., April 3 (AP)—Oliver J. Swab fell in the street and seeing a car bearing down on him he rose quickly and jumped onto the hood of Walker Whitmore's auto.

But Whitmore, attempting to avoid striking Swab, swerved and struck a car driven by F.W. Flack. "I don't want to be the cause of accidents," said Swab, who suffered only bruises. He agreed to pay repair of both cars.

J. F. Dolan Dies
Wilmington, Del., April 3 (AP)—J. Frank Dolan, noted Canadian sportsman and former player for the St. Louis Browns, died yesterday. He pitched for Manhattan college and later went to the Connecticut State League. He was with the Browns for one season and then developed arm trouble, winding up with Ottawa in the Canadian League, where he played under Frank Shaughnessy.

Barbers Restrict Cuts
The Bolton Hairdressers' Association complained bitterly that Gwylm Roberts, half-back of the Bolton Wanderers, prominent British Rugby team, and a barber by trade, was cutting his fellow players' hair. The players at first thought the matter a joke, but finally agreed to have their trims by the local barbers, provided the latter did not play professional football as a sideline.

HIGHLAND

Eisenhower Has Volunteer Plan To Increase Army

An intensified drive for volunteers to offset the end of selective service will be based on a five-point program for strengthening the U. S. Army recruiting service, Major Gen. St. Clair Streett, U. S. Army chief of Military Personnel Procurement Service, announced today.

Plans for the next fiscal year call for a volunteer army of 1,070,000 and to achieve its goal the Recruiting Service will have 1,014 commissioned officers, 4,867 enlisted men, and 1,356 civilians on the job.

The office plans stabilization of the recruiting force by placing all enlisted men on detached duty with the service and reducing turnovers resulting of transfers.

It plans generally a strengthening of forces at headquarters and improvement of the quality of the service by increasing the percentage of noncommissioned officers. Sixty per cent of the force will be made up of noncommissioned officers of the first three grades.

This has been accomplished in part by the detail of 1,700 non-commissioned officers from the Army Air Forces.

The office will also improve training methods at the Army Information School, Carlisle Barracks, Carlisle, Pa. It calls for extension of the school period and concentration on problems of salesmanship and public relations.

The plan is expected to put to test the observation of Chief of Staff Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower that "From now on we are engaged in a great test, to see whether a system traditionally American in peacetime—the volunteer system—can give us the stable well-trained Regular Army our current international commitments require."

A recent report of the Recruiting Service shows that while draft calls were suspended after November 1, 1946, more than 100,000 volunteers have been recruited since then, and that more than 1,130,923 men have enlisted since the start of the voluntary recruiting campaign, while the number drafted was only 308,441.

Job Situation Is Better in March Stanton Reports

April Prospects Are Bright; May Need 1,000 Men on Dam Project

There was some improvement in the unemployment situation in Ulster county during the past month, as reflected in the applications for work on file at the New York State Employment Service office, 243 Fair street, Manager George J. Stanton said this morning.

Job placements, which numbered 94 in March, nearly doubled the 53 reported in February. Mr. Stanton said. Factors tending to an improved situation mentioned were: Shipyard and backyards began to call former employees back to work, although the demand from these sources is not large as yet. Some stiffening in the matter of unemployment insurance grants and readjustment allowances has also affected the employment office files, it was stated.

Sizeable decreases in the number of applications for work on file are expected in April, due to more orders for workers being placed with the State Employment Service. Resumption of work on the Lackawack and Neversink dams will furnish opportunities of employment. Just how many jobs will be open on these New York city projects is not definitely known, but estimates have placed the number at between 500 and 1,000. Reopening of work on New York state's super highway also will furnish jobs for workers in this area.

Figures compiled by the State Employment Service show that as of April 1 there were on file from the Kingston-Elленville area a total of 1877 applications for work, a decrease of 200 over the figures for March 1. Of these 1812 were males, a decrease of 205, 265 were females, an increase of 95 over a month ago. Veterans on the rolls April 1 numbered 1,009 as against 1,333 March 1.

The Saugerties office reported 325 applications on file April 1, as compared with 343 March 1, a decrease of 18. Of these 288 were males, a decrease of 11 over last month's figure; 37 were females.

a decrease of 7 during the month. For the entire area covered by the Kingston office, there are 218 less applications on file than there were on March 1.

Report on Living Costs To Married, Single Vets

Troy, N. Y., April 3—The average married veteran attending Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute spends $150.70 a month in living costs, and the single veteran $103.32, the campus post of the American Veterans Committee has reported.

The report was based upon returns from 273 married veterans and 800 single ones, out of about 3,000 veterans at R.P.I. to whom questionnaires were sent as a part of what was described as a national A.V.C. drive for increased government subsistence allowances for veterans attending colleges.

It was said that A.V.C. proposes allowances of $90 a month for single veterans and $125 a month for married veterans, with $10 additional for each child. Present allowances are $65 and $90, respectively.

Food was the largest item in the living costs—$62.12 for married men and $47.93 for single ones.

Is Under Censorship

Ottawa, April 3 (AP)—Information about atomic energy has been placed under peacetime censorship in Canada by new government regulations replacing wartime controls.

Every year something new in "style" makes its bow at Easter time. High style this year for Easter Eating is Turkey. Golden brown, roast turkey—a tantalizing appetite teaser at any time.

For traditional Easter Eating there is, of course, delicious Smoked Ham. Take your choice—Turkey or Smoked Ham, both are "tops" for your Easter Feast.

Roast Turkey
1. Rub inside cavity with salt, ½ teaspoon or less per pound of bird. Make a incision and insert meat thermometer so that the center of the bird reaches the center of the largest muscle. Be sure that the bulb does not rest on either fat or bone. Do not cover and do not add water. Place in a slow oven (300°F.) and bake until done. Smoked ham is done when the meat thermometer registers 170°F. Allow about 25 minutes per pound for baking a whole ham, about 30 minutes per pound for a half ham.

I have two attractive recipe leaflets, one for Turkey, one for Smoked Ham. Send for your copies today—Absolutely Free!

Baked Smoked Ham
Place whole or half ham fat side up, on a rack in an open roasting pan. Make an incision and insert meat thermometer so that the center of the ham reaches the center of the largest muscle. Be sure that the bulb does not rest on either fat or bone. Do not cover and do not add water. Place in a slow oven (300°F.) and bake until done. ### Says Von Hindenburg Advised Against Hitler

New York, April 3 (AP)—A former confidante of Germany's late President von Hindenburg said that Adolf Hitler turned pale when he read the political will of the German military hero and destroyed the will because of its threat to the Nazi movement.

Here on a business trip, Baron F. G. von Tschirschky said in an interview yesterday that the aging field marshal, in the will, urged the German people to restore the Hohenzollern monarchy after his death in August, 1934. He said it "unquestionably would have been restored" if the will had been made public, and there would have been no World War II.

Von Tschirschky, a Silesian-born aristocrat, said he was present when von Hindenburg's political will, and also a "testament" reciting the history of his administration, were delivered to Hitler as chancellor.

Shanghai, April 3 (AP)—More than 60 employees of U.N.R.R.A.'s China office today charged the Chinese government had kept all but two per cent of U.N.R.R.A. supplies from Communist-controlled areas. Territory controlled by the Communists, the U.N.R.R.A. employees declared, hold one-third of the nation's population. The protest was contained in a resolution which the signers requested their director, Maj. Gen. Glen Edgerton, to forward to U.N.R.R.A. headquarters in Washington and to the Chinese government.

Jefferson Speech Ready

Washington, April 3 (AP)—The White House said today that President Truman has completed a preliminary draft of his 20-minute speech to the $100-a-plate Jefferson Day dinner here Saturday night. Press Secretary Charles G. Ross would not discuss the contents of the speech, which is to be delivered under the auspices of the Democratic National Committee at the Mayflower Hotel.

May Tighten Rules

Centralia, Ill., April 3 (AP)—A state probe neared conclusion and a federal investigation was to begin today in the Centralia coal mine disaster which is to be delivered under the auspices of the Democratic National Committee at the Mayflower Hotel.

Two Sentenced to Die

Jerusalem, April 3 (AP)—Meier Feinstein and David Azulai, believed to be members of the Irgun Zvai Leumi underground resistance organization, were sentenced to death by a Jerusalem military court today. They were accused of taking part in an attack on the Jerusalem railway station last October, when armed men rushed the station and planted explosives which blasted the interior of the building.

Financial and Commercial

By VICTOR EUBANK

New York, April 3 (AP)—Coal mine news helped unsettle the stock market today and, while the selling was unimpressive, leaders generally backed down fractions to around 20 points.

Pre-holiday pathy ruled most of the proceedings. There was a flurry of professional liquidation when the Interior Department announced that 518 government-operated soft coal mines would be closed indefinitely because they were believed dangerous. Dealings then reverted to sluggishness and extreme declines were reduced in the majority of cases near the fourth hour.

Good earnings and dividends failed to do much for stocks concerned. Wall Street still was a bit bearish regarding the threatened telephone strike, business prospects, taxes and foreign affairs.

On the offside were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Goodrich, Goodyear, Sears Roebuck, J. I. Case, Western Union, A. T. & T., Chesapeake and Ohio, Schenley, Barber Asphalt, American Woolen, Dow Chemical, Eastman Kodak, Allied Chemical and Du Pont.

Resistance was displaced by Chrysler, Transcontinental and Western Air, Eastern Air Lines, J. C. Penney and U. S. Lines.

Bonds were uneven. Commodities stumbled and recovered at intervals.

W. Duffy, Success in Florida,
Has Hollywood Trip in View

Back from the sunny southland, Kingston's William J. "Billy" Duffy, the beauty contest specialist, has announced that he is planning a trip to Hollywood to see the big picture.

At least that is what he announced after requesting the school board to connect him with the society editor.

Duffy, leaving for Miami and other points in Florida, where he has been seeking the prize of a million dollars, the ex-wife of a former Christmas wreath salesman and recent legatee was content with talking to any reporter but not now.

"You can say I'm back after a successful season," he boasted, "very successful indeed."

socially prominent folk in the Sunshine State.

Must Have the Beauties

And, of course, the Duffy program would not be complete without a beauty parade. The "Glamorous March" was participated in by puchititudinous ladies seeking three titles—Miss Artists Model, Miss Atlantic and Miss Coral Way.

"It's not a bit far-fetched in the least," he beamed "to say that the collection of those ravishing southern beauties was heavenly." Then a G.I. glint sparked in the World War I vet's eyes as he added, "Ah, those tall Texas gals. I had to look up when I conversed with 'em."

They really were a big attraction for the Legion, remarked Duffy, whose loyalty to the organization and devotion to wounded veterans prompted him to take a leading part in Poppy Days of bygone years for Kingston Post.

Mr. Duffy won his way into the hearts of the Chambers of Commerce and press representatives of Florida by advising that "I've defied my rascally coat to spend the winter months among you extremely hospitable folk of the very desirable Southland."

And with a true Senator Claghorn attitude he added, "the north is no place for me."

Billy's experience at promoting beauty contests (he left nothing unsaid about the "extravaganzas" in Woodstock's art colony) labeled him as just the right man. He was received with open arms.

He's Alligator Man

Water shows are the rage in Florida, so he had to identify himself with that sort of entertainment. "I'm the Alligator Man of New York State," he told the press. "All my life I've been at home in the water; started diving for coins when just a youngster, yes just a youngster. All the children know me as the Alligator Man."

Acquaintances of Duffy are wondering what they'll do for local beauty contests this summer. Before the war Billy held one every year even if no more than two girls were interested in competing for the queenly title of "Miss Ulster County."

Prizes! Well, locally there was a pretty ribbon sash, a bouquet and bread, milk, groceries or any variety of articles donated by merchants of the locale.

Although he wasn't talking for publication, Duffy condescended to converse with a couple of reporters the other day in an up-town grill.

"Drink up boys. Anything you want," was his invitation as he displayed a fistful of folding money. "Southern cabbage, that's what it is. Yes sir; big season, big season. Make mine ginger ale."

Hollywood His Goal

"What are your summer plans?" asked one of the scribes.

"Can't say, I'm considering a trip to the coast. They need promoters out there. Hollywood goes big for beauty parades. I'll bet one of mine will make the movies. Think of this on the screens of the nation: Arranged, and staged by the Great Billy Duffy. It'll be a big boost for Kingslosh."

Duffy contemplates staging his Hollywood beauty contests in a setting of "heavenly grandeur." His Woodstock show were "emerged in the foliage of the historic Catskill mountains."

Just so the movie colony tycoons don't miss him, Duffy's the portly gentleman with a French beret and horn-rimmed glasses, a broad smile and an imagination comparable to that of the great P. T. Barnum.

Foster Is Denied Entrance

New York, April 3 (AP)—The War Department has declined to permit William Z. Foster, American Communist party chairman, now on a European tour, to enter the U. S. zone of Germany as a correspondent for The Daily Worker, officials of the Communist party newspaper said last night.

Veteran Gets House, Job

New York, April 3 (AP)—William Koehrer, 34-year-old disabled navy veteran, whose family was evicted Tuesday from a basement flat at 461 East 183rd street, the Bronx, had a new home today and job to boot. Douglas Mitchell, president of the American Radio Hardware Company, 152 McQuestion Parkway, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., ate yesterday gave Koehrer a job as caretaker of his estate on Mamaroneck Road in Scarsdale, N. Y. A cottage big enough for the veteran, his wife and their four children goes with the job. Mitchell's brother, Joseph, had arranged overnight shelter for the Koehrer family and storage of their belongings after the eviction.

Tinsmith Moves

Augustus G. Roe, tinsmith, who for over 20 years has conducted business at 121 North Front street, has removed to 404 Washington avenue. Mr. Roe succeeded to the North Front street business of Frederick Gallagher, established by Mr. Gallagher's father in 1926.

RIFTON

Rifton, April 2—Mrs. Sophie Johnson spent several days in New York last week.

Mrs. Louis Palkowicz is ill at her home with a cold.

Mrs. John Kettleson and Mrs. Hayward Eckert were visitors to the Ballo home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Terpening have moved to the village.

Mrs. Mathilda Brix expects to leave for Puerto Rico April 23 to visit her son, Edward Brix.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clement and children are spending next week in New York.

Leroy Davis will sing a solo on Easter Sunday during worship at 2:30 o'clock. Sermon theme, "Jesus' Resurrection and the Immortal Hope." Lenten offerings will be received Easter Sunday. The Sunday school has prepared a special Easter song service which will be heard at the hour of worship.

Lamb's Deaths Mystery

Mysterious death of 35 lambs on the Hawera town golf course in New Zealand, one recent night, still is unsolved. The lambs were killed by the neat severance of the sinews at the back of the neck and a deep incision in a spot just behind the shoulders. There was little blood and the 35 carcasses were found close together.

Job Situation Is Better in March Stanton Reports

April Prospects Are Bright; May Need 1,000 Men on Dam Project

There was some improvement in the unemployment situation in Ulster county during the past month, as reflected in the applications for work on file at the New York State Employment Service office, 243 Fair street, Manager George J. Stanton said this morning.

Job placements, which numbered 94 in March, nearly doubled the 53 reported in February. Mr. Stanton said. Factors tending to an improved situation mentioned were: Shipyards and brickyards began to call former employees back to work, although the demand from these sources is not large as yet. Some stiffening in the matter of unemployment insurance grants and readjustment allowances has also affected the employment office files, it was stated.

Sizable decreases in the number of applications for work on file are expected in April, due to more orders for workers being placed with the State Employment Service. Resumption of work on the Lackawack and Neversink dams will furnish opportunities of employment. Just how many jobs will be open on these New York city projects is not definitely known, but estimates have placed the number at between 500 and 1,000. Reopening of work on New York state's super highway also will furnish jobs for workers in this area.

Figures compiled by the State Employment Service show that as of April 1 there were on file from the Kingston-Ellenville area a total of 1877 applications for work, a decrease of 200 over the figures for March 1. Of these 1812 were males, a decrease of 265; 265 were females, an increase of 95 over a month ago. Veterans on the rolls April 1 numbered 1,009 as against 1,333 March 1.

The Saugerties office reported 325 applications on file April 1, as compared with 343 March 1, a decrease of 18. Of these 288 were males, a decrease of 11 over last month's figure; 37 were females, a decrease of 7 during the month. For the entire area covered by the Kingston office, there are 218 less applications on file than there were on March 1.

Report on Living Costs To Married, Single Vets

Troy, N. Y., April 3—The average married veteran attending Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute spends $150.70 a month in living costs, and the single veteran $103.32, the campus post of the American Veterans Committee has reported.

The report was based upon returns from 275 married veterans and 800 single ones, out of about 3,000 veterans at R.P.I. to whom questionnaires were sent as a part of what was described as a national A.V.C. drive for increased government subsistence allowances for veterans attending colleges.

It was said that A.V.C. proposes allowances of $90 a month for single veterans and $125 a month for married veterans, with $10 additional for each child. Present allowances are $65 and $90, respectively.

Food was the largest item in the living costs—$62.12 for married men and $47.93 for single ones.

EASTER CREATIONS

Every year something new in "style" makes its bow at Easter time. High style this year for Easter Eating is Turkey. Golden brown, roast turkey—a tantalizing appetite teaser at any time.

For traditional Easter Eating there is, of course, delicious Smoked Ham. Take your choice—Turkey or Smoked Ham, both are "tops" for your Easter Feast.

Roast Turkey

1. Rub inside cavity with salt, 1/2 teaspoon or less per pound of bird.
2. Place enough stuffing in neck to fill it nicely. Fasten skin to back.
3. Stuff cavity well, but do not pack it tightly.
4. Truss, then grease skin thoroughly with softened cooking fat (butter may be used).
5. Lay in pan, on a rack, preferably on one side, back up. Or, place in V shaped rack. Break down and keep in this position throughout the roasting.
6. Cover with fat moistened cloth, then roast at constant low temperature, (325°F. for 8 to 14 lb. bird, and 300°F. for 14 to 20 lb. bird) until tender. Turn bird over to opposite side, still back up, then, breast side up when about half done if cooked on flat rack.
7. Do not sear. Do not cover. Do not add water to the pan. Sprinkle melted fat over cloth as it becomes dry.

Baked Smoked Ham

Place whole or half ham fat side up, on a rack in an open roasting pan. Make an incision and insert meat thermometer so that the center of the bulb reaches the center of the largest muscle. Be sure that the bulb does not rest on either fat or bone. Do not cover and do not add water. Place in a slow oven (300°F.) and bake until done. Smoked ham is done when the meat thermometer registers 170°F. Allow about 25 minutes per pound for baking a ham, about 30 minutes per pound for a half ham.

I have two attractive recipe leaflets, one for Turkey, one for Smoked Ham. Send for your copies today—Absolutely Free!

Rehabilitation Group Discusses County TB Project

A meeting of the newly organized rehabilitation committee of the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association was held at the Ulster County Tuberculosis

Hospital library on Tuesday afternoon.

The purpose of this committee is to work with the rehabilitation director, to learn of the various problems in the department, to make suggestions, and to act as a clearing group between the needs of the patients at the hospital and the community as well as to interpret the program to the county people.

Miss Marion Neuman, a graduate, of Lawrence College, Wisconsin, and Philadelphia School of Occupational Therapy is the rehabilitation director. Working under the medical direction of Dr. George Weber, superintendent of the hospital, Miss Neumann has been organizing this project which is most essential in a well-rounded tuberculosis program.

Clubs Needs of Patients
During the meeting, Philip T. Schantz, of Highland, chairman, brought to the attention of the members the various needs of the patients. The value of good books and entertainment through music, plays and movies as moral builders was discussed.

Miss Neumann reported that occupationally therapeutic vocational projects which will benefit the patient during his stay and after his discharge from the hospital are being established as soon as the machinery of this department can be set up. She also stated that a rehabilitation program must be built around the medical status of the patient. As the patient's cure progresses, the rehabilitation program will change and develop with greater emphasis being placed on the discovery of aptitudes and pre-vocational training. Many needed contributions have already been made to this department, Miss Neumann said. She also reported that three high school students will complete their school training at the hospital. This has been made possible through contact with the various high schools and teachers where the students were enrolled. Several patients have requested Spanish lessons. Arrangements are being made through the committee for such a project.

Committee Members

The following persons have been appointed by Harry S. Ensign, president of the Tuberculosis Association, to serve on this committee.

Philip T. Schantz, of Highland, chairman; John C. Braun, Ellenville; Mrs. Vincent Connelly, Clarence Dummi, Mrs. William Hilton, Mrs. Fred Holcomb, the Rev. William R. Peckham, Edmund P. Rochford, Mrs. Alfred D. Ronder and Katherine M. Murphy, R. N., Kingston; Mrs. Fabian Russell, Saugerties. Meetings will be held at the Tuberculosis Hospital on the first Tuesday of each month.

"New Bus Terminal"

New York, April 3 (AP)—A projected $18,000,000 union bus terminal in midtown Manhattan will be ready to operate by June, 1949, the Port of New York Authority informed the City Planning Commission late yesterday. Howard S. Cullman, Authority chairman, told the commission that land parcels with a total assessed valuation of $10,000 already have been acquired for the project, which will be located between 40th and 41st streets between Eighth and Ninth avenues.

The collective farms of Russia range from 250 to 2,500 acres.

Claim to $92,800 Cache Is Muddled Now by State Angle

Philadelphia, April 3 (AP)—The dreams of untold wealth of some 28 claimants to the $92,800 cache found in a south Philadelphia cellar by a $75 a week bookkeeper appeared ready to blow up today in the face of a state claim on the money.

A formal claim under the Escheatment Act of 1889 was made by Greene Frazier, J. J. Escheator appointed in the case by David W. Harris, state secretary of revenue. Frazier served notice on city officials and the Trust Company, depository for the funds, not to dispose of the money pending presentation of the commonwealth's claim.

The Escheatment Act is not a commonwealth's only basis for obtaining the money found in a cardboard box by Benjamin Lieberman early last month. James F. Ryan, counsel for the Philadelphia Bureau of Police, said the state also might seek the loot under the old English law governing "treasure trove." Under this law, the Crown could lay claim to any buried treasure to which was no legitimate claimant, Ryan said.

But Lieberman and 27 other would-be owners of the money haven't given up the fight. The bookkeeper, who denies any knowledge of how the money found its way into his cellar, has engaged an attorney.

And as if there were not enough fingers in the pie, special intelligence units of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the enforcement division of the Office of Price Administration are investigating. And Uncle Sam can't be counted out. The secretary of the treasury is determining just how much income tax he will collect regardless of who the lucky claimant turns out to be.

To Control Pills

New York, April 3 (AP)—The City Board of Health will hold a final hearing May 13 on proposals for tighter control of the sale of sleeping pills. Dr. Israel Weinstein, health commissioner, said at a hearing yesterday that such pills of the habit-forming group caused 78 accidental deaths, 292 accidental poisonings, and were used in 109 suicides last year.

Reports on Zones

Seoul, April 3 (P)—The general secretary of the World Federation of Trade Unions asserted today there was "far more freedom of organization" in the Russian zone of north Korea than in the U. S. southern zone. An American member of the W.F.T.U. delegation—now touring the Orient—said in an interview, however, that living conditions in the north were very poor, and a British member described the American zone as "a paradise" compared with the Russian zone.

of Kladno's citizenry turned out for the ceremony and there were speeches by U. S. Ambassador Laurence Steinhart, Prof. J. B. Kozak, formerly of Columbia University, and now of Charles University, Prague, and by officials of Kladno. The Germans had removed the tablet and brought it to Prague to be melted down with other bronze for gun manufacture. Residents of Kladno came to Prague, stole the tablet and hid it.

Ives Has Earned Capital's Respect; Is Watched Closely

Washington, April 3 (AP)—It's been three months since Irving M. Ives, Norwich Republican, took over the Senate seat of Buffalo's James Michael Mead—hardly time for him to get acquainted.

But Ives has done much more than merely get acquainted.

Already, and entirely aside from political considerations, Washington has been impressed.

One of the things heard most about the former majority leader of New York's Assembly is that he's "sound." Another common comment is that "he doesn't go off half-cocked."

One Senate employee, who's been around Congress for 38 years, said of Ives:

"There's a man to watch. He'll make his mark in the Senate. He knows when not to talk."

It's probably a fair statement to say that Ives, of all the 21 new senators of the 80th Congress, has emerged as the most prominent and certainly one of the most respected.

There are at least two reasons for this. The first is the man himself and the second is his close personal and political association with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Being so closely linked to Dewey was bound to make Ives a marked man. What Ives said and did could be an indication of what Tom Dewey, a likely candidate for the Republican presidential nomination again, was turning over in his mind up in Albany.

Ives has completely captivated capital press and radio correspondents. They're convinced that he never tries to give them the run-around—a common practice in Washington.

If Ives doesn't have an answer to a specific question he'll quickly tell you so—and why.

Ives' only complaint about his Washington service is that he gets too much mail. Letters and telegrams by the hundreds roll into his office each day. He's disturbed because it's impossible to answer them all.

"It was never like that in Albany," he says.

Ulster Educators Will Hold Spring Parley April 21

Final plans for the annual spring conference of the Ulster Educators were made at Monday's executive meeting held at the Marlborough Central School, John Gardiner, Wallkill, president, presided at the session.

This year's annual affair will be held at the Marlborough Central School, Monday, April 21. The theme of the conference will be "Education and Social Competence."

The day's program will include the following: Invocation, solo, singing by Marlborough board of education, business meeting including reports by the secretary and treasurer; communication and standing committees. Other reports will be heard from classroom, welfare, public relations, resolutions and nominating committees. Report of special committees including legislative, salary and budget also will be given.

Other features on the program include a hobby show and book exhibit, dinner in the school cafeteria, a combined musical program, and address by Dr. John Carr Duff, dean of Men, School of Education, New York University.

Representatives of each area are asked to notify Albert Kingsley, Marlborough, no later than April 16 of the number of persons desiring to attend the turkey dinner which will be served at noon in the school cafeteria during the conference.

Miss Mary E. Jenkins, secretary-treasurer; Miss Sarah G. Helle of Wallkill, John Crowley, Highland, house of delegates representative, and Albert Kingsley, Marlborough representative, are included on the recently appointed budget committee which will draft the budget for the 1947-48 term.

The nominating committee has prepared a suggestive slate of officers for the new year. These will be elected during the conference. Other nominations may be made from the floor.

A new delegate to the house of delegates will be elected from either the rural area of New Paltz. This will be included in the new business during the meeting.

W. Duffy, Success in Florida,
Has Hollywood Trip in View

Back from the sunny southland is Kingston's William J. "Billy" Duffy, the beauty contest specialist.

At least that is what he announced after requesting the switchboard operator to connect him with the society editor.

Before leaving for Miami and other points in Florida, where he gathered the elite crowd seeking pleasure at any cost, the ex-waiter, former Christmas wreath salesman and recent legatee was content with talking to any reporter—but not now.

"You can say I'm back after a successful season," he boasted, "very successful indeed."

Press notices mailed in advance from Florida dailies substantiated his announcement. Feature stories, advertisements and posters heralded his "water shows extraordinary and beauty fantasies."

The event he staged at Miami's Belmore Pool topped all. Hardly a celebrity of the aquatic world was left off the program sponsored by the American Legion, Coral Gables Post 98.

This Billy Duffy presentation featured Wally Spence, Katherine Rawls, Peter Fisk, Susan Sturm, Sid Canelli, Hank Akers, Frank Wardwell and a water ballet with some of the most gorgeous femmes in the land of Dixie. Patrons were some of the most socially prominent folk in the Sunshine State.

Must Have the Beauties

And, of course, the Duffy program would not be complete without a beauty parade. The "Glamour March" was participated in by pulchritudinous ladies seeking three titles—Miss Artists Model, Miss Atlantic and Miss Coral Way.

"It's not a bit far-fetched in the least," he beamed "to say that the collection of those ravishing southern beauties was heavenly." Then a G.I. glint sparkled in the World War I vet's eyes as he added, "Ah, those tall Texas gals. I had to look up when I conversed with 'em."

"They really were a big attraction for the Legion," remarked Duffy, whose loyalty to the organization and devotion to wounded veterans prompted him to take a leading part in Poppy Days of bygone years for Kingston Post.

Mr. Duffy won his way into the hearts of the Chambers of Commerce and press representatives of Florida by water: started diving for coins when just a youngster, yes just a youngster. All the children know me as the Alligator Man."

And with a true Senator Claghorn attitude he added, "the north is no place for me."

Billy's experience at promoting beauty contests (he left nothing unsaid about the "extravaganzas" in Woodstock's art colony) labeled him as just the right man. He was received with open arms.

He's Alligator Man

Water shows are the rage in Florida, so he had to identify himself with that sort of entertainment. "I'm the Alligator Man of New York State," he told the press. "All my life I've been at home in the water; started diving for coins when just a youngster, yes just a youngster. All the children know me as the Alligator Man."

Acquaintances of Duffy are wondering what they'll do for local beauty contests this summer. Before the war Billy held one every year even if no more than two girls were interested in competing for the queenly title of "Miss Ulster County."

Prizes? Well, locally there was a pretty ribbon sash, a bouquet and bread, milk, groceries or any variety of articles donated by merchants of the locale.

Although he wasn't talking for publication, Duffy condescended to converse with a couple of reporters the other day in an up-town grill.

"Drink up boys. Anything you want," was his invitation as he displayed a fistful of folding money. "Southern cabbage, that's what it is. Yes sir; big season, big season. Make mine ginger ale."

Hollywood His Goal

"What are your summer plans?" asked one of the scribes.

"Can't say. I'm considering a trip to the coast. They need promoters out there. Hollywood goes big for beauty parades. I'll bet one of mine will make the movies. Think of this on the screens of the nation: Arranged, and staged by the Great Billy Duffy. It'll be a big boost for Kingston."

Duffy contemplates staging his Hollywood beauty contests in a setting of "heavenly grandeur." His Woodstock shows were "emersed in the foliage of the historic Catskill mountains."

Just so the movie colony tycoons don't miss him, Duffy's the portly gentleman with a French beret and horn-rimmed glasses, a broad smile and an imagination comparable to that of the great P. T. Barnum.

Foster Is Denied Entrance

New York, April 3 (AP)—The War Department has declined to permit William Z. Foster, American Communist party chairman now on a European tour, to enter the U. S. zone of Germany as a correspondent for The Daily Worker, officials of the Communist party newspaper said last night.

Veteran Gets House, Job

New York, April 3 (AP)—William Koehrer, 34-year-old disabled navy veteran, whose family was evicted Tuesday from a basement flat at 461 East 183rd street, the Bronx, had a new home today and a job to boot. Douglas Mitchell, president of the American Radio Hardware Company, 152 McQuestion Parkway, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., late yesterday gave Koehrer a job as caretaker of his estate on Mamaroneck Road in Scarsdale, N. Y. A cottage big enough for the veteran, his wife and their four children goes with the job. Mitchell's brother, Joseph, had arranged overnight shelter for the Koehrer family and storage of their belongings after the eviction.

Tinmith Moves

Augustus G. Roe, tinmith, who for over 20 years has conducted business at 121 North Front street, has removed to 404 Washington avenue. Mr. Roe succeeded to the North Front street business of Frederick Gallagher, established by Mr. Gallagher's father in 1826.

RIFTON

Rifton, April 2—Mrs. Sophie Johnson spent several days in New York last week.

Mrs. Louis Palkowicz is ill at her home with a cold.

Mrs. John Kettleson and Mrs. Hayward Eckert were visitors to the Balto home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Terpening have moved to the village.

Mrs. Mathilda Brix expects to leave for Puerto Rico April 23 to visit her son, Edward Brix.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clement and children are spending next week in New York.

Leroy Davis will sing a solo on Easter Sunday during worship at 2:30 o'clock. Sermon theme, "Jesus' Resurrection and the Immortal Hope." Lenten offerings will be received Easter Sunday. The Sunday school has prepared a special Easter song service which will be heard at the hour of worship.

Lambs' Deaths Mystery
Mysterious death of 35 lambs on the Hawera town golf course in New Zealand, one recent night, still is unsolved. The lambs were killed by the neat severance of the sinews at the back of the neck and a deep incision in a spot just behind the shoulders. There was little blood and the 35 carcasses were found close together.

Proclamation

The Good Friday Proclamation issued by Mayor William F. Edelmuth is as follows:

This nation, together with its allies in all parts of the world fought a war to restore to all mankind the right to worship God as he sees fit.

During this Holy Week, the nations of this world are praying most fervently that a just and lasting peace will be written to protect this most precious right. On this Good Friday we should spend at least one hour in prayer supplicating God for his aid in comforting the people of those countries who are in dire want for the bare necessities of life, and to pray to Him to assist those in whose hands we have entrusted the writing of a lasting peace.

As Mayor of the City of Kingston, I respectfully request that all citizens of this city observe Good Friday in a spirit of prayer to the crucified Son of God.

Given under my hand this second day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-seven.

WILLIAM F. EDELMUTH, Mayor.

CLUB MEMBER HAS NO PLACE TO ENTERTAIN

An embarrassing situation is described as follows: "I live with a aunt, who is an invalid and, therefore, not able to do any entertaining. I don't feel free to use her house to give parties of my own. I belong to several card clubs and am beginning to feel very uncomfortable at not taking my turn as hostess. What can I do about it? I have put off taking a turn due to my aunt's repeated illness. My friends tell me not to worry about it, that it doesn't matter whether I have them or not. They insist that I come to their house anyway." Unless you belong to a club or there is a tearoom or similar informal restaurant at which you could hold a meeting, it is best for you to do as your friends evidently want you to do and not worry. Perhaps you could take your turn in the house of one whom you know especially well and provide the refreshments and the new packs of cards.

Bride's Matrons

Dear Mrs. Post: My two sisters are married and would like to take part in my wedding. However, both would have to be matrons of honor, wouldn't they? And how can I have two matrons of honor?

Answer: They should be called bride's matrons. The words "of honor" actually mean whichever of the bride's attendants holds her bouquet during the ceremony and straightens out her train afterwards. When they are of equal rank, one holds the bouquet and the other straightens out her train.

Eleven Inches Very Small

Dear Mrs. Post: What is the smallest size napkin that can be used for informal daily tea? I'd rather use linen than paper, but my real tea napkins are too much of a problem in laundering to use regularly and my plainer napkins may be too small. Will you give me your advice?

Answer: Eleven inches is about the smallest. Big paper ones might be better, especially if the linen ones are sleazy as well as small.

No Gifts Required

Dear Mrs. Post: We are being married in a minister's study and having no guests. The minister will provide the two necessary witnesses. Shall we buy gifts for these two or what?

Answer: The fee to the minister will be the only requirement.

Mrs. Post's booklet (No. 501) "The Etiquette of Weddings," contains helpful information giving details of ceremony and reception. To obtain a copy send 10 cents (coin preferred) and a 3-cent stamp to her, care of the Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. ### Drivers Uninjured

Occupants of two autos which collided at Broadway and St. James street shortly after 6 p. m. Wednesday, escaped uninjured. One was driven by Achille Manella of Port Jervis and the other by Walter Baren, 160 Bruyn avenue. The latter was the property of the Ulster County Farm Bureau. Both were damaged.

Rehabilitation Group Discusses County TB Project

A meeting of the newly organized rehabilitation committee of the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association was held at the Ulster County Tuberculosis

Hospital library on Tuesday afternoon. The purpose of this committee is to work with the rehabilitation director, to learn of the various problems in the department, to make suggestions, and to act as a clearing group between the needs of the patients at the hospital and the community as well as to interpret the program to the county people.

Miss Marion Neuman, a graduate, of Lawrence College, Wisconsin, and Philadelphia School of Occupational Therapy is the rehabilitation director. Working under the medical direction of Dr. George Weber, superintendent of the hospital, Miss Neuman has been organizing this project which is most essential in a well-rounded tuberculosis program.

Cites Needs of Patients

During the meeting, Philip T. Schantz of Highland, chairman, brought to the attention of the members the various needs of the patients. The value of good books and entertainment through music, plays and movies, as moral builders was discussed.

Miss Neumann reported that occupationally therapeutic vocational projects which will benefit the patient during his stay and after his discharge from the hospital are being established as soon as the machinery of this department can be set up. She also stated that a rehabilitation program must be built around the medical status of the patient. As the patient's cure progresses, the rehabilitation program will change and develop with greater emphasis being placed on the discovery of aptitudes and pre-vocational training. Many needed contributions have already been made to this department, Miss Neuman said. She also reported that three high school students will complete their school training at the hospital. This has been made possible through contact with the various high schools and teachers where the students were enrolled. Several patients have requested Spanish lessons. Arrangements are being made through the committee for such a project.

Committee Members

The following persons have been appointed by Harry S. Engin, president of the Tuberculosis Association, to serve on this committee.

Philip T. Schantz, of Highland, chairman; John C. Braun, Ellenville; Mrs. Vincent Connelly, Clarence; Mrs. William Hilton, Mrs. Fred Holcomb, the Rev. William R. Peckham, Edmund P. Rochford; Mrs. Alfred D. Ronder and Katherine M. Murphy, R. N., Kingston; Mrs. Fabian Russell, Saugerties. Meetings will be held at the Tuberculosis Hospital on the first Tuesday of each month.

New Bus Terminal

New York, April 3 (AP)—A projected $18,000,000 union bus terminal in midtown Manhattan will be ready to operate by June, 1949, the Port of New York Authority informed the City Planning Commission late yesterday. Howard S. Cullman, Authority chairman, told the commission that land parcels with a total assessed valuation of $10,000 already have been acquired for the project, which will be located between 40th and 41st streets between Eighth and Ninth avenues.

Claim to $92,800 Cache Is Muddled Now by State Angle

Philadelphia, April 3 (AP)—The dreams of untold wealth of some 28 claimants to the $92,800 cache found in a south Philadelphia cellar by a $75 a week bookkeeper appeared ready to blow up today in the face of a state claim on the money.

A formal claim under the Escheatment Act of 1889 was made by Graeme Frazier, Jr., escheator appointed in the case by David W. Harris, state secretary of revenue. Frazier served notice on city officials and the Trust Company, depository for the funds, not to dispose of the money pending presentation of the commonwealth's claim.

The Escheatment Act is not the commonwealth's only basis for obtaining the money found in a cardboard box by Benjamin Lieberman early last month. James F. Ryan, counsel for the Philadelphia Bureau of Police, said the state also might seek the loot under the old English law governing "treasures trove." Under this law, the Crown could lay claim to any buried treasure to which was no legitimate claimant, Ryan said.

But Lieberman and 27 others would-be owners of the money haven't given up the fight. The bookkeeper, who denies any knowledge of how the money found its way into his cellar, has engaged an attorney.

And as if there were not enough fingers in the pie, special intelligence units of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the enforcement division of the Office of Price Administration are investigating. And Uncle Sam can't be counted out. The secretary of the treasury is determining just how much income tax he will collect regardless of who the lucky claimant turns out to be.

To Control Pills

New York, April 3 (AP)—The City Board of Health will hold a final hearing May 13 on proposals for tighter control of the sale of sleeping pills. Dr. Israel Weinstein, health commissioner, said at a hearing yesterday that such pills of the barbiturate group caused 78 accidental deaths, 292 accidental poisonings, and were used in 109 suicides last year.

Limited German Reparations Is Marshall Plan

Secretary Reaffirms Stand on Demands to Increase the Reparations

Moscow, April 3 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall told the Council of Foreign Ministers today the United States would be willing to consider limited German reparation from current production, but only if the allied powers agreed to leave in Germany a number of plants now earmarked for capital reparations.

At the same time Marshall proposed the compromise formula, he reaffirmed in a paper circulated among Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of Russia, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault that "present demands to increase the reparations agreed upon at Potsdam cannot be considered by the United States."

This was a restatement of his qualified opposition to Molotov's demand for $10,000,000,000 over

20 years. Marshall's new proposal, which previously was taken up briefly in a secret session last Tuesday, is based, he said, on the assumption that the German level of industry is to be raised and that plants now marked for reparations export can be used to boost the level.

Informants said the proposition was first informally laid before the other three foreign ministers by the American secretary at the Council of Foreign Ministers executive session Tuesday.

While it was described as amounting to a compromise proposal between the United States, British and Russian positions on the reparations deadlock, it was said at the same time to be entirely unacceptable to the Russians in its present form.

Members of the American delegation, however, said the proposal represented about the extreme limit to which Marshall is willing to go in order to meet Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov on this vital issue.

The Russians have asked $10,000,000,000 in reparations from Germany over a 20-year period, some of it from current production, and the stand of the western powers against this demand, coupled with Molotov's refusal to retreat from it, has blocked all efforts to reach a settlement of basic German issues.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, Marshall's

top adviser on German problems, left Moscow for Berlin by plane today and his departure was widely interpreted as meaning that the American delegation sees little prospect of effecting major settlements at this conference.

McNarney Urges Return Of Economy to Germany

Frankfurt, April 3 (AP)—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney left Germany by air for Washington today, warning the Big Four not to make a "sink-hole of chaos" out of Germany.

McNarney, former commander of American forces in Europe who will become chairman of the United States delegation to the United Nations military staff committee, declared in a forceful talk to the press before boarding his plane:

"It is essential that the economy of Germany be restored to a reasonable basis."

"This must be done unless Germany is to become a sinkhole of chaos in the middle of Europe that not only would delay the recovery of neighboring countries but may also sink them into chaos."

Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 quarts a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Ives Has Earned Capital's Respect; Is Watched Closely

Washington, April 3 (AP)—It's been three months since Irving M. Ives, Norwich Republican, took over the Senate seat of Buffalo's James Michael Mead—hardly time for him to get acquainted.

But Ives has done much more than merely get acquainted.

Already, and entirely aside from political considerations, Washington has been impressed.

One of the things heard most about the former majority leader of New York's Assembly is that he's "sound." Another common comment is that "he doesn't go off half-cocked."

One Senate employee, who's been around Congress for 38 years, said of Ives:

"There's a man to watch. He'll make his mark in the Senate. He knows when not to talk."

It's probably a fair statement to say that Ives, of all the 21 new senators of the 80th Congress, has emerged as the most prominent and certainly one of the most respected.

There are at least two reasons for this. The first is the man himself and the second is his close personal and political association with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Being so closely linked to Dewey was bound to make Ives a marked man. What Ives said and did could be an indication of what Tom Dewey, a likely candidate for the Republican presidential nomination again, was turning over in his mind up in Albany.

Ives has completely captivated capital press and radio correspondents. They're convinced that he never tries to give them the run-around—a common practice in Washington.

If Ives doesn't have an answer to a specific question he'll quickly tell you so—and why.

Ives' only complaint about his Washington service is that he gets too much mail. Letters and telegrams by the hundreds roll into his office each day. He's disturbed because it's impossible to answer them all.

"It was never like that in Albany," he says.

Ulster Educators Will Hold Spring Parley April 21

Final plans for the annual spring conference of the Ulster Educators were made at Monday's executive meeting held at the Marlborough Central School, John Gardiner, Wallkill, president, presided at the session.

This year's annual affair will be held at the Marlborough Central School, Monday, April 21. The theme of the conference will be "Education and Social Competence."

The day's program will include the following: Invocation, solo, singing by Marlborough board of education, business meeting including reports by the secretary and treasurer; communication and standing committees. Other reports will be heard from classroom, welfare, public relations, resolutions and nominating committees. Report of special committees including legislative, salary and budget also will be given.

Other features on the program include a hobby show and book exhibit, dinner in the school cafeteria, a combined musical program, and address by Dr. John Carr Duff, dean of Men's School of Education, New York University.

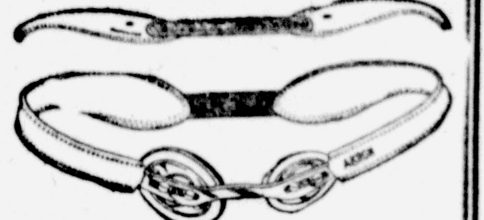

Representatives of each area are asked to notify Albert Kingsley, Marlborough, no later than April 16 of the number of persons desiring to attend the perky dinner which will be served at noon in the school cafeteria during the conference.

Miss Mary E. Jenkins, secretary-treasurer; Miss Sarah Guzik of Wallkill, John Crowley, Highland, house of delegates representatives, and Albert Kingsley, Marlborough, representative, are included on the recently-appointed budget committee which will draft the budget for the 1947-48 term.

The nominating committee has prepared a suggestive slate of officers for the new year. These will be elected during the conference. Other nominations may be made from the floor.

A new delegate to the house of delegates will be elected from either the rural area of New Paltz. This will be included in the new business during the meeting.

General Clay Returns

When he departed for Moscow it was known that he didn't want to stay away too long. Certainly, Government officials were surprised today by the return of General Lucius D. Clay to his post as military governor. Clay's special plane was expected to arrive in Berlin late this afternoon, they said, and noon.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

Ocracoke, N. C., April 3 (AP)—Ocracoke Island, a 16-mile-long curve of sand some 19 miles off the North Carolina mainland, is a "poor man's Bermuda" where wild ponies dig their own wells and a woman once lived to be 117 years old.

It is a timeless isle where money means little and a man has to think hard to find anything to worry about. There are really only three things to do here—fish, hunt ducks and geese or just sit and listen to an everlasting wind push the sea against the sand with a muffled "flup flup flup."

Some wealthy people spend a lot of travel money just to come here to do these things—which the island's population of 700 enjoys free.

The world washed by Ocracoke during the war between the states. Before that it had been a notorious pirate hangout, a focal point of operation for shore wreckers—some of whom made a business of luring ships into reefs, and an important port of entry.

Now it is a peaceful, bypassed fishing village. You don't have to buy a state automobile license because there is only one small concrete road, built by the navy. But it doesn't go anywhere.

No Police, No Jails
There are no police and no jails. The island was peopled by pirates and shipwrecked sailors, but there has been a murder for more than 100 years.

"A couple of the boys act up occasionally," said C. F. Boyette, manager of the village hotel, "but 'taint worth the trouble to go over to the mainland and swear out a warrant."

There is no housing shortage on Ocracoke, no doctor, no street cars, no saloons or drug stores, no problems.

The one Negro family on the island has been there for three generations. Its members attend the white church and school and are well liked.

There is a legend that the pirate Blackbeard named the island. To elude pursuers, he is reported to have exclaimed impatiently "Oh, crow Cock," earlier sea charts, however, listed the island as Ocracoke—so the story is plain tourist Ocracoke and bull, so to speak.

The two chief island families—the Howards and the Wahabs—are descended from William Howard, a quartermaster for Blackbeard who escaped hanging, and Ahab Wahab, an Arab sailor washed ashore in the 18th century. The families are deeply intermingled. "Everybody on this island is just a little related—if you could trace it back," said one old resident.

The islanders are ruggedly independent and retain vestiges of the speech of Elizabethan England. They are friendly and courteous to outsiders but unimpressed by "important" people. Every Fourth of July they pen and brand rolls of the score or two of wild ponies which roam the marshes. The animals paw shallow wells in the sand to get water and lie down to drink it. Nobody yet has been able to teach them to sip through a straw.

Blend together 1/2 cup scalded milk, 1/2 cup shortening, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup cinnamon, 1/2 cup nuts, if desired, as for jelly roll and cut into 1-inch slices; place cut side down in greased, 12x8x2-inch pan or greased muffin pan.

Spread with 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup cinnamon, 1/2 cup nuts, if desired, as for jelly roll and cut into 1-inch slices; place cut side down in greased, 12x8x2-inch pan or greased muffin pan.

Roll out on well-floured board to 18x12-inch rectangle.

Cool 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup compressed or 1 package fast, dry granular yeast, mix until dough is well-blended.

Blend in 1 egg

Add gradually 3 cups sifted Pillsbury's Best Enriched Flour; mix until dough is well-blended.

County Democrats Will Take Action On Forman Post

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Ulster County Democratic Committee this evening at 8 o'clock at the court house. One of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the resignation of Joseph H. Forman as chairman of the county committee.

Mr. Forman submitted his resignation some time ago and at that time the county committee declined to accept the resignation. It is expected that at the meeting this evening the executive committee will consider the matter and probably make a recommendation to the County Democratic Central Committee at a later date.

Mr. Forman, who has served as Ulster County chairman of the Democratic Committee for some time, recently was found guilty in Federal Court of conspiring to defeat O.P.A. regulations regarding the sale of sugar.

Premier Peker Warns War Is Quite Possible

Istanbul, April 3 (AP)—Istanbul newspapers quoted Premier Recep Peker today as telling a group of merchants at Izmir that "it is quite possible we might wake up one morning and find ourselves in a war."

The premier's warning, press dispatches said, came last night in reply to a request that the merchants be permitted to export wheat—an item which Turkey has kept chiefly for home consumption since the beginning of the last war.

Peker was quoted as saying that Turkey had plenty of wheat this year, but that she still must hold herself prepared for eventualities.

"Under prevailing conditions of today our big neighbors should not declare war. It is absolutely so, but logic is not enough. We cannot judge everything according to our own logic."

A deadly poison extracted from a microbe in the soil has been discovered as a rodent exterminator.

School No. 5 Team Honored for Winning Two Titles

The Mothers' Club of School No. 5 entertained the school's city championship basketball squad on Tuesday evening with a dinner in the school library celebrating the team's undefeated season in the Grammar School League and the victory in the Grade School Tournament conducted last week. The No. 5 squad will receive the Kingston Athletic Association trophy for the tournament victory. The team members honored were Captain Carmen Milano, Bruce Hinkle, Frank Spohrer, Vincent Hart, John Houghtaling, Richard Petro, Donald Murphy, William Buckman, Wilfred Sutton, Robert Baumer and Albert Spada. Also present were Principal A. J. Boyd, Coach Russell Cunningham and the sixth and seventh grade teachers from whose grades the team is drawn, namely Mrs. Martin F. Netter, Miss R. Miriam Halloran, Mrs. Spencer Follette and Mrs. Gordon Boyce. The committee from the Mothers' Club who planned and prepared the dinner were Mrs. Harry Anderson, president; Mrs. William Baumer, Mrs. Benjamin Dankberg, Mrs. Henry Eighmey, Mrs. Joseph Hastings, Mrs. Edward Hinkley, Mrs. William Lifer, Mrs. William Paulus, Mrs. Stanley Petro and Mrs. Henry Singer.

Ruhr Miners Hold Up Production in Demand for Food

Essen, April 3 (AP)—The Ruhr's giant coal industry came to an almost complete standstill today as most of the area's 300,000 miners ignored British appeals to remain on the job and walked out in demand for more food for their families.

Miners in the Cologne area—technically not part of the Ruhr—remained on the job. But reports from throughout the Ruhr indicated that most of its 170 mines were idle in a strike expected to cause a loss in production of half a million tons of badly needed coal. The walkout order was issued by mine union leaders yesterday at Bochum.

Some officials described the demonstration as a "petticoat strike." They said the miners, with the highest rations in Germany, had no reason to strike on their own behalf but must have listened to wives' complaints that they and their children lacked food.

One responsible official said that both union and political agitators had played upon this idea.

Trailer Truck Upsets Outside of Saugerties

A Mack trailer truck operated by Frank J. Urban, 29, of Stockport and owned by Albert Holmes of Hudson skidded on the wet pavement four miles north of Saugerties Wednesday when the driver applied the brakes on a slight grade and then overturned. The truck hit a pole carrying down light and phone wires as it went over a slight embankment on the Muller property. When the pole was broken off there was an interruption of service for a couple of hours until repairs could be made.

Troopers from the Lake Katrine barracks, who made an investigation, reported the driver said the truck skidded when the brakes were applied and then ran off the road and overturned on its left side. When the vehicle halted it was headed southerly. Wires from the light circuit dropped on the truck but there was no fire.

Traffic was halted for a time while the Van Kleeck garage of this city hauled the truck and trailer back on the highway. Urban sustained only slight bruises.

Governor Says Local Tax Should Help Pay Teachers

Harrisburg, Pa., April 3 (AP)—Pennsylvania's 60,000 teachers likely will get $27,000,000—but no more—from the state for increased salaries in the next two years if Gov. James H. Duff has his way.

Any larger pay boost must be financed by local school districts which he said must be given a broadened tax base to permit levies other than those on real estate.

A bill now in the Legislature, backed by the powerful Pennsylvania State Educational Association and listed for a public hearing this month, would hike mandated minimums by $1,000—from $1,400 to $2,400 a year—and cost the commonwealth an additional $78,000,000 for the next biennium.

The $27,000,000 left unallocated in the 1947-49 budget for possible teacher salary boosts, Duff said, represents "very definitely the maximum of the state's obligation."

Landlocked Switzerland is operating a merchant fleet of 11 ships as a war measure.

Christopher Lynch, Popular Irish Tenor, Sings Here Wednesday

Christopher Lynch, popular tenor of the "Voice of Firestone" radio program, and protégé of the late John McCormack, will give a concert at Kingston High School Auditorium Wednesday, April 3, at 8:30 p. m., for the Kingston Community Concerts Association. Admission will be by membership card only and since this is the final concert of the season all membership cards will be collected at the door.

Mr. Lynch was born in Rathfriland, County Limerick, Ireland, 24 years ago. He came to this country last October to fulfill radio and concert commitments. He had been signed by the Firestone program for a series of winter concerts and by Arthur Judson, president of Columbia Records.

Prior to this time he was unknown in this country and had never sung over a microphone. He has studied with Dr. Vincent O'Brien, discoverer and teacher of McCormack, and Giuseppe Morelli in Rome. For a year before his death, the late John McCormack personally coached the young singer and said, "He is the one most likely to succeed me... a very beautiful voice... I have not heard better in a quarter of a century."

Appearing with Mr. Lynch at the concert will be Melvin Ritter, violinist, and Eugene Bossart, pianist.

The program will be: "Art Thou Troubled," Handel; "Veni che poi sereno," Gluck; "O del mio dolce arder," Gluck; "The Sailor's Song," Haydn; "Then You'll Remember Me" from "The Bohemian Girl," Balfe.

"Lamento di Federico," from "L'Arlesiana," Gile; "Questa o Quella," from "Rigoletto," Verdi. "Oh Cense Thy Singing, Maiden Fair," Rachmaninoff; "Pavane Angeli-cus," with violin obbligato, Franck. Violin solos: "Hungarian Dance," Brahms-Joachim; "Introduction and Tarantella," Sarasate; Mr. Ritter.

"Off in the Still Night," Thomas Moore; "My Lagen Love" (old Irish), arr. Sir Hamilton Harty; "The Star of the County Down" (old Irish), arr. Herbert Hughes; "All in an April Evening," J. Michael Dick; "Yarmouth Fair," Peter Warlock; "Blow Me Eyes," Albert Hay Malotte.

Business Girls Hold Easter Hat Show

In observance of the Easter season the Business and Professional Girls Club of the Y.W.C.A. held an original Easter bonnet show at its regular meeting Wednesday night. Prizes were offered for the most original and funniest.

Miss Mildred Simmons was awarded first prize for the most original, a large hat topped with a miniature house and flower garden. Miss Mary Polhemus won second prize for her hat made from a 1905 victrola record with paper dolly and cluster of red roses.

For the funniest hat Mrs. Charles Winter was awarded first prize for her chicken yard hat complete with hens, rooster, wire fence surrounded by flowers. Miss Sylvia Relyea won second prize with her bonnet offering food for the Easter bunny including anise, carrots and pea pods and a small paper rabbit.

Some of the other attractive hats showed a model of a basic hat form trimmed with "kiconex," nail file and a half a dozen bottles of nailpolish; large panama trimmed with carrots; hat made from newspaper with paper daffodils around the brim; large white hat trimmed with Easter basket grass; and another made from paper doli and paper plant. Judges were Miss Ethel Roberts, Miss Audria Slinger, Miss June Kasterleik and Miss Dolores Reina. The members brought their hats in hat boxes. The boxes were auctioned off at a small sum and the purchaser was required to wear her new hat during the dinner hour.

Afterward a Lenten program was presented with a study of the Jewish, Protestant and Catholic ways of worshiping God. Musical selections were played by Miss Reina and the club joined in singing.

Next week the supper will be served at 6 p. m. instead of the usual hour because of the Community Concert. Esther Breckmeister, eastern area secretarial adviser who works with the business and industrial girls clubs, will be the speaker. Her topic will be "Participation in the Association."

Roland Maxins Entertain Mr. and Mrs. Roland Maxin, 62 Grant street, celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary Saturday night with a supper party at their home. Guests included Mrs. Brown, Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Young, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Maxin all of Poughkeepsie; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Beira, Staatsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Maxin, West Hartford; Conn.; Miss Blanch Dwyer and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sagendorf, Kingston.

First Dutch Church Announces Annual Easter Night Pageant

The First Dutch Church will present its fifth annual Easter Pageant Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The play this year will be "Thy Kingdom Come" by Florence Converse. It is a royalty play produced by special arrangement with the Walter H. Baker Company of Boston. The story deals with four of the Galilean children whom Jesus loved and blessed. They come to the tomb and talk with the three soldiers who are on guard. The scene ends with the coming of the angels of the resurrection to roll away the stone from the tomb. The cast is as follows: Soldier who plaited the crown of thorns, James Little; soldier who pierced the side of Jesus, Donald Laidlaw; soldier who won the seamless coat, Henry Millington; little daughter of Jairus, Juanita Dunham; boy who was an epileptic, Ronald Buchanan; lad who once had five barley loaves and two fishes, Larry Van Eiten; a child whom Jesus blessed, Jean Milliken; the angel of the prophecies, Ann Page.

The Senior Choir will sing as anthem during the service, "All on an April Evening," by Roberson and "Awake, Thou That Sleepest," Sir John Stainer.

Benedictine Auxiliary Asks Patrons to Make Returns
All patrons who have not made their returns for the April Showers Charity Ball sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Benedictine Monastery are asked to do so as soon as possible so that names may be included in the published list. Miss Anne Campbell reported that returns so far have been encouraging. The ball will be held at the municipal auditorium Monday night.

Final plans and reports for the ball were made at the regular monthly meeting of the auxiliary in the Nurses' Home Tuesday evening. New members introduced were Miss Vivian Wolfersting, Mrs. Gregory Kenyan and Mrs. John J. Van Gonsic.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, May 7, when the Rev. Father Winchell of Mt. St. Alphonsus will give an illustrated talk on the Holy Shroud.

Christopher Tappen Society Studies Flag at Meeting

The Christopher Tappen Society, Children of the American Revolution, held a study meeting on the national flag Tuesday afternoon at Wiltsyck Chapter D.A.R. House. Mrs. William MacGregor Mills, senior president, led the discussion which was based on the national flag code.

Peter Branch, president, was elected a delegate to attend the D.A.R. national congress at Washington, D. C., in May.

Plans were made for the supper party April 29. Movies will be shown of the Southern D.A.R. School at Tamassac.

Proclamation

The Good Friday Proclamation issued by Mayor William F. Edelmuth is as follows:

This nation, together with its allies in all parts of the world fought a war to restore to all mankind the right to worship God as he sees fit.

pray to Him to assist those in whose hands we have entrusted the writing of a lasting peace.

As Mayor of the City of Kingston, I respectfully request that all citizens of this city observe Good Friday in a spirit of prayer to the crucified Son of God.

Given under my hand this second day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-seven.

WILLIAM F. EDELMUTH,
Mayor.

CLUB MEMBER HAS NO PLACE TO ENTERTAIN

An embarrassing situation is described as follows: "I live with a aunt, who is an invalid and therefore, not able to do any entertaining. I don't feel free to use her house to give parties of my own. I belong to several card clubs and am beginning to feel very uncomfortable at not taking my turn as hostess. What can I do about it? I have put off taking a turn due to my aunt's repeated illness. My friends tell me not to worry about it, that it doesn't matter whether I have them or not. They insist that I come to their house anyway."

Unless you belong to a club or there is a tearoom or similar informal restaurant at which you could hold a meeting, it is best for you to do as your friends evidently want you to do and not worry. Perhaps you could take your turn in the house of one whom you know especially well and provide the refreshments and the new packs of cards.

Bride's Matrons

Dear Mrs. Post: My two sisters are married and would like to take part in my wedding. However, both would have to be matrons of honor, wouldn't they? And how can I have two matrons of honor?

Answer: They should be called bride's matrons. The words "of honor" actually mean whichever of the bride's attendants holds her bouquet during the ceremony and straightens out her train afterwards. When they are of equal rank, one holds the bouquet and the other straightens out her train.

Eleven Inches Very Small

Dear Mrs. Post: What is the smallest size napkin that can be used for informal daily tea? I'd rather use linen than paper, but my real tea napkins are too much of a problem in laundering to use regularly and my plainer napkins may be too small. Will you give me your advice?

Answer: Eleven inches is about the smallest. Big paper ones might be better, especially if the linen ones are sleazy as well as small.

No Gifts Require d

Dear Mrs. Post: We are being married in a minister's study and having no guests. The minister will provide the two necessary witnesses. Shall we buy gifts for these two or what?

Answer: The fee to the minister will be the only requirement.

Mrs. Post's booklet (No. 501) "The Etiquette of Weddings" contains helpful information giving details of ceremony and reception. To obtain a copy send 10 cents (coin preferred) and a 3-cent stamp to her, care of the Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. ### Kerhonkson Youth Is Reported Missing

Robert Kortright, 17, of Kerhonkson, R.F.D., disappeared from his home on February 23 and has not been heard from since. His parents are most anxious to have the lad communicate with them or have anyone who may know his whereabouts notify them. His father, George Kortright, has notified Sheriff Smith of the affair and today stated that he was anxious to have the lad contact his home. Anyone knowing of the lad's whereabouts may communicate by phone, Kerhonkson 2655, with the parents.

When he left home Robert was wearing yellow rubber boots, plaid jacket, brown shirt and overalls. He is 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs about 150 pounds and has brown hair and blue eyes. It is not believed the lad has met with foul play.

Feast of Passover

Passover (Pesach), the Feast of Liberation from Egyptian slavery, begins on Friday evening and will be observed for eight days ending Saturday evening, April 12. It commemorates the departure of the Hebrews from Pharaoh's Egypt and has, for thousands of years, been celebrated by special home ceremonies called Seder. In line with the Biblical injunction, families observe the Seder night with a special Pesach ritual contained in the Hagadah, which relates the tale of Passover. The home ceremony is rich in symbols and is climaxed by the Pesach supper. During the Pesach week, observant Jews will eat no leavened food, especially bread, substituting the "unleavened bread" or matzo for it.

Temple Emanuel

Passover services will be held Friday, 6:15 p. m., instead of at 7:45. This change is due to the Passover holiday. There will be a Saturday morning service at 10 o'clock.

Due to the holiday there will be no religious school Sunday morning. The Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel will meet Wednesday, April 3, 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Joseph Levine, Mountain View avenue.

Abhavath Israel

Congregation Abhavath Israel, 72 Wurts street, Frank D. Plotke, rabbi, has announced services on Friday and Saturday evening at 6:15 o'clock. Morning services on Saturday and Sunday at 9. Sermon on Sunday morning on the topic "A Nation Conceived in Liberty." First Seder night on Friday evening. Children are requested to attend the services.

Agudas Achim

Congregation Agudas Achim, Orthodox synagogue of Kingston, West Union street. Stanley Danziger, rabbi, Thursday, April 3—Search for Heaven; Friday, 7:45 a. m., Siyum Bechorim; Friday afternoon, Candle Lighting, 6:10 p. m.; Minchah, 6:15 p. m.; Friday evening, First Seder of Passover; Sabbath morning, First Day of Passover; Services as follows: Sabbath morning, 8:30 a. m., Sabbath afternoon, 6:15; Sabbath evening, 7; Saturday evening, Second Seder; Sunday, Second Day of Passover, services as follows: Sunday morning, 8:30; Sunday afternoon, 6:15; Sunday evening, 7. ## Limited German Reparations Is Marshall Plan

Secretary Reaffirms Stand on Demands to Increase the Reparations

Moscow, April 3 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall told the Council of Foreign Ministers today the United States would be willing to consider limited German reparation from current production, but only if the allied powers agreed to leave in Germany a number of plants now earmarked for capital reparations.

At the same time Marshall proposed the compromise formula, he reaffirmed in a paper circulated among Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of Russia, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault that "present demands to increase the reparations agreed upon at Potsdam cannot be considered by the United States."

This was a restatement of his qualified opposition to Molotov's demand for $10,000,000,000 over

20 years. Marshall's new proposal, which previously was taken up briefly in a secret session last Tuesday, is based, he said, on the assumption that the German level of industry is to be raised and that plants now marked for reparations export can be used to boost the level.

Informants said the proposition was first informally laid before the other three foreign ministers by the American secretary at the Council of Foreign Ministers executive session Tuesday.

While it was described as amounting to a compromise proposal between the United States, British and Russian positions on the reparations deadlock, it was said at the same time to be entirely unacceptable to the Russians in its present form.

Members of the American delegation, however, said the proposal represented about the extreme limit to which Marshall is willing to go in order to meet Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov on this vital issue.

The Russians have asked $10,000,000,000 in reparations from Germany over a 20-year period, some of it from current production, and the stand of the western powers against this demand, coupled with Molotov's refusal to retreat from it, has blocked all efforts to reach a settlement of basic German issues.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, Marshall's

McNarney Urges Return Of Economy to Germany

Frankfurt, April 3 (AP)—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney left Germany by air for Washington today, warning the Big Four not to make a "sink-hole of chaos" out of Germany.

McNarney, former commander of American forces in Europe who will become chairman of the United States delegation to the United Nations military staff committee, declared in a forceful talk to the press before boarding his plane:

"It is essential that the economy of Germany be restored to a reasonable basis."

"This must be done unless Germany is to become a sinkhole of chaos in the middle of Europe that not only would delay the recovery of neighboring countries but may also sink them into chaos."

'Red' Gorsline, Corrigan Among Five Area Players With Dodgers

Newhart and Boyer Also With Group At Carolina Camp

"Red" Gorsline, of Kingston, and Tom Corrigan, Tilton catcher, are among five Hudson valley district hopefuls going through daily workouts at the Brooklyn Dodgers' Class D and C training camp at Thomasville, North Carolina.

The Thomasville staging area for Dodger minor league clubs in the lower classifications opened last Thursday, with Bobby Newhart, the crack Highland Falls second baseman; Earl Lane, of Windham, and hard-hitting Bobby Boyer, of Poughkeepsie, joining Gorsline and Corrigan.

Although the Dodgers have not committed themselves on the idea, it is believed that this well known quintet will be assigned to the Kingston club, if they make the grade.

It seems a foregone conclusion that Newhart, voted the outstanding player in the K.A.A. junior game here last summer, will nail down the second base position. He is a brilliant youngster who appears headed for eventual stardom.

Gorsline Has Chance

Gorsline, former K.I.S. luminary who has played every position except score keeping and umpiring, will be assigned definitely to the outfield. At least that was the impression given by "Turk" Karam at the Dodger training school conducted at municipal stadium.

Corrigan is remembered by Kingston as a catcher for the Recreation in the declining stages of the 1946 season. Before he came to Ulster county, Corrigan played 29 games with Federalburg in the Eastern Shore League. He is a fair receiver and hitter but his age is expected to mitigate against him.

Paul Taylor, business manager of the Kingston Dodgers signed Corrigan to his contract but warned him that unless he demonstrated unusual skill he would be released because of his age.

Lane on Re-Trial

The sensation of the Dodger school, hard-socking, well-knit Earl Lane is getting another chance after only fair success in his first fling at organized ball.

After Lane's impressive showing in Kingston, the Dodgers waived the usual procedure and pressed him into action immediately. The big mountain lad failed to react favorably and experienced considerable difficulty orienting himself under archlights. He was fitted with special glasses and assured of another chance. His daylight batting average was considered good.

Boyer, the all-around Poughkeepsie athlete was the leading hitter against the Brooklyn Juniors, rapping a double and homer. He is a rugged, line-drive hitter but as yet has not settled down to one playing position. His chances of making the grade are considered excellent.

If every member of the quintet is signed to a regular contract and assigned to Kingston, the local Dodgers will not only have local color but the nucleus for a well-rounded pennant contender. The decision will be made in a few days and like everyone else, business manager Taylor is pulling for the wholesale transfer of the rookies to Kingston.

Sohm, Weishaupt Top Midnight Loop

Eddie Sohм and Larry Weishaupt shared the spotlight in the Midnight League activities at the Central Recreation alleys Wednesday night. Sohм, rollings with Nagsy's Barbers, walked off with high triple honors with a solid 606 on a string of 193-211-202.

Weishaupt, anchor for Huttons, blasted the highest single of the night with his opening game of 234.

Elting "Pop" Auchmoody of Gregorys salvaged a good night when he wound up his third game with a blazing 233 single, just one pin short of Weishaupt's 234 score. Auchmoody had a 542 triple. Larry's three-trimer netted him 548.

Other noteworthy efforts included Ray Houghtaling who hit 568-576, Joe Fay 210-571, Ray Houghtaling 211-559, Jim Sweeney 200-542 and A. Amato 211-511.

Testimonial Speaker

Famous New York sports columnist whose daily column "The Powerhouse" in the Daily News is often the most controversial in sports writing circles, will be the principal speaker at the testimonial to be given Rose Schatzel, Kingston's outstanding woman bowler, on Monday, April 7, at The Bar. The testimonial is sponsored by the Kingston Athletic Association and is expected to prove one of the most colorful sports events in local history. The Chamber of Commerce, The Kingston Daily Freeman and the Kingston Women's Bowling Association also are cooperating in the affair. Mr. Powers will fly directly from Miami, Florida to Newark airport on Monday, arriving at 2:30 and will be driven to Kingston.

Three Local Quintets Set For Tournament Tonight

With three powerful Kingston quintets slated for action tonight in the Ulster-Greene Basketball Tournament, indications are that all of the extra seats provided by Lou Schafer at the municipal auditorium will be filled to capacity when the first game gets underway at 7:15 o'clock between the Kingston American Legion and V.F.W.

Favorites Are Scheduled

The second clash, set for 8:15 o'clock, will feature the Dawkins Favorites and Cairo American Legion. The Favorites are former high school stars and their followers expect them to rack up another victory tonight.

The first half of the big doubleheader should furnish plenty of action with two high-scoring quintets slated to battle each other. The Legion five went through a great year in the county league this season and have hopes of copping the tournament flag. A win tonight will enhance that hope.

Sparkling the Legion will be Tony Albany and Jack Ruzzo, forwards; Hank Krupp, center and Tommy Maines and "Snitz" McElrath, Mol Wolf, Don Ross and Nick Amato. The Vets will have Dan McGrane and Al Thomas, forwards; Bud Smith, center; and Frank Sas and Gus Koch, guards. "Red" Emmick, Nick Carl, Fran Coughlin and Don Murphy are reserve players.

With such luminaries as Eddie Weaver and Mike Rienzo, the Dawkins cagers are rated favorites to knock off the strong Cairo Legion in the wind-up game at 8:15. Bob Gear, George Glaser, Joe Albany, "Champ" Holstein, Mort Gazlay and Ken Lowe also will be ready to carry the Dawkins five to another win.

Cairo, with Frank Swilpa and Charlie Duncan ready to halt the Dawkins team, will be tough customers for the local cagers. Swilpa and Duncan are the one-two punch for Cairo but extra strength is forthcoming from Ed Engleman.

Vincent Paces Rees With 593

Bob Vincent, who has the distinction of having been raised in the same town with Tony Sparando, emulated his home townsman Tuesday night, when he fired a 593 triple to lead the Central Rec League trundlers.

Vincent had games of 218, 203 and 172 as Jones Dairy tripped Worfs, 2-1. P. Ferraro shot 201, 207 for Joneses. Eltinge Auchmoody led Worfs with 551.

Ernie "Wrong Font" Magnusson shot 215-570 and Cosmos Castello shot 200-568 in the Hotel Ulster sweep over Smith Avenue Storage. Stan

Warren shot 510 for Smith's. Davis Jr.'s 561 was high for the match but Slover-Jansen-Schline defeated his Steins, 2-1. Pere Slover cracked 555 for S.K.S. Evergreen won three from Chez Emile with Nick Turck shooting 220, 574. The Chez Emile high was R. Houghtaling's 504.

General Clay Returns

Berlin, April 3 (AP)—American Military Government officials were not surprised today by the return of General Lucius D. Clay to his Berlin post as military governor. The general has tremendous responsibilities here, they said, and noon.

when he departed for Moscow it was known that he didn't want to stay away too long. Certainly, American officials added, General Clay had no intention of staying for the entire conference. General Clay's special plane was expected to arrive in Berlin late this afternoon.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

Ocracoke, N. C., April 3 (AP)—Ocracoke Island, a 16-mile-long curve of sand some 19 miles off the North Carolina mainland, is a "poor man's Bermuda" where wild ponies dig their own wells and a woman once lived to be 117 years old.

It is a timeless isle where money means little and a man has to think hard to find anything to worry about. There are really only three things to do here—fish, hunt ducks and geese or just sit and listen to an everlasting wind push the sea against the sand with a muffled "flap flap flap."

Some wealthy people spend a lot of travel money just to come here to do these things—which the island's population of 700 enjoys free.

The world washed by Ocracoke during the war between the states. Before that it had been a notorious pirate hangout, a focal point of operation for shore wreckers—some of whom made a business of luring ships into reefs, and an important port of entry.

Now it is a peaceful, bypassed fishing village. You don't have to buy a state automobile license because there is only one small concrete road, built by the navy. But it doesn't go anywhere.

No Police, No Jails
There are no police and no jails. The island was peopled by pirates and shipwrecked sailors, but there hasn't been a murder for more than 100 years.

"A couple of the boys act up occasionally," said C. F. Boyette, manager of the village hotel, "but 'tain't worth the trouble to go over to the mainland and swear out a warrant."

There is no housing shortage on Ocracoke, no doctor, no street cars, no saloons or drug stores, no race problems.

The one Negro family on the island has been there for three generations. Its members attend the white church and school and are well liked.

There is a legend that the pirate Blackbeard named the island. To elude pursuers, he is reported to have exclaimed impatiently "Oh, crow Cock"; earlier sea charts, however, listed the island as Ocracoke—so the story is plain tourist Ocracoke and bull, so to speak.

The two chief island families—the Howards and the Wahabs—are descended from William Howard, a quartermaster for Blackbeard who escaped hanging, and Ahab Wahab, an Arab sailor washed ashore in the 18th century. The families are deeply intermingled. "Everybody on this island is just a little related—if you could trace it back," said one old resident.

The islanders are ruggedly independent and retain vestiges of the speech of Elizabethan England. They are friendly and courteous to outsiders but unimpressed by "important" people. Every Fourth of July they pen and brand colts of the score or two of wild ponies which roam the marshes. The animals paw shallow wells in the sand to get water and lie down to drink it. Nobody yet has been able to teach them to sip through a straw.

County Democrats Will Take Action On Forman Post

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Ulster County Democratic Committee this evening at 8 o'clock at the court house. One of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the resignation of Joseph H. Forman as chairman of the county committee.

Mr. Forman submitted his resignation some time ago and at that time the county committee declined to accept the resignation. It is expected that at the meeting this evening the executive committee will consider the matter and probably make a recommendation to the County Democratic Central Committee at a later date.

Mr. Forman, who has served as Ulster county chairman of the Democratic Committee for some time, recently was found guilty in Federal Court of conspiring to defeat O.P.A. regulations regarding the sale of sugar.

Reilly Case Adjourned
City Judge Matthew V. Cahill today adjourned for a week, hearing on the disorderly person charge against Raymond Reilly, 72 Garden street. Reilly was arrested in New York Wednesday on a warrant.

Weaver, Rienzo Picked on All-Duso Five

Chicago to Play Rochester

Chicago, N. Y., April 3 (AP)—The Chicago American Gears and the Rochester Royals, winners of the 1946-47 National Basketball League, will play the first of a two-game series here in the first of a three-game series, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and Thursday.

Glaser and Ghear Named on Second Team by Writers

Kingston High School's famed one-two scoring punch, better known as Big Eddie Weaver and Mike Rienzo, have been unanimously selected on the 1946-47 All DUSO basketball team by the Hudson Valley Sports Writers' Association, Ralph Frederick of Port Jervis announced today.

Two other stalwarts of this season's pennant-winning team, George Glaser and Bobby Ghear, were named on the league's second team, while Harry Koch, reserve guard, was selected for honorable mention.

Other First Stringers Besides the two Kingston eagers, the association selected Al Benjamin of Liberty for the other forward slot with Rienzo. The guards are Charlie Holland of Liberty and Charlie "Red" Murray of Middletown.

The only unanimous selections on this year's squad were Weaver and Rienzo, two of the finest ball players in the scholastic loop this season. Weaver, a four-letter man at K.H.S., emerged from the league play this season as highest individual scorer. Rienzo, on the other hand, was equally as dangerous in the minds of the writers. Mike, the fiery type ball player from the word go, was a vital key in every Maroon contest throughout the long campaign.

Other players selected for the second squad with Glaser and Ghear were Burt Halprin of Monticello at forward, Don Huffmire of Liberty, center, and a tie between Jack McDaniels of Middletown and Jay Hodges of Newburgh for the other guard position.

Huffmire, runner-up to Weaver for individual scoring honors, was the only other noteworthy pivot man in the loop this season and his choice for the second string team was expected in all corners. Huffmire led Weaver for most of the year until he found the range in the Newburgh game. After that it was all Weaver.

Besides Harry Koch, Kingston guard, for honorable mention, the writer voted berths to Mort Kaplan, Monticello forward; Davey Litvack, Monticello guard; and Dominick Morando, Port Jervis forward.

Billiard Results

Harry Markle scored a 125 to 102 victory over Myrie Russell in the city pocket billiard tournament held at Nick Kaslich's Academy, 297 Wall street, Wednesday night. Both players stroked high runs of 17.

Tonight's battle will feature Eddie Benoit and Harry Markle at 7:30 o'clock.

Next Boxing Show

Thursday, April 17

There will be no final British boxing show at the municipal auditorium on Thursday night, April 10.

The next card of ring attractions planned by the organization is for April 17.

This was announced today by Dr. Saul Goldfarb, who as chairman of the boxing committee, said that next week's date would interfere with observance of a religious holy period.

He was not prepared to say whether the Johnny Marchese-Paul Simpson match would headline the card on the 17th. This bout was scheduled for the 10th, but may not be available for the new date.

"This postponement, regardless of what happens to the Marchese-Simpson bout, will give us time to look up some of the leading Golden Gloves winners," said Dr. Goldfarb.

In The Pocket

CHARLIE TIANO

L'AFFAIRE CELEBRE: The combination testimonial to Rose Schatzel, the Kingston High School 1947 DUSO basketball champion, and the personal appearance of Jimmy Powers, famous sports columnist of the Daily News, marks another significant milestone in the brief but brilliant history of the Kingston Athletic Association. The affair, scheduled for Monday, April 7 at The Barn, is an outstanding occasion in local sports history and merits the solid support of all sports fans of the city.

The appearance of Jimmy Powers in Kingston is in itself a tremendous boost for the city. Powers already has given Kingston bowling several sparkling "plugs" in his Powerhouse and only yesterday profiled Mrs. Schatzel and Mayor Edelmuth. Neither Mr. Powers' decision to accept an invitation offered by the K.A.A. nor the excellent publicity he has given Kingston last summer. It required promotion of the highest type and in this respect Al Cirillo, Powers' bowling editor, must be given an assist.

Cirillo can and will do Kingston bowling publicity much good in the future in his capacity as bowling editor of the News. Powers plans bowling coverage on an expanded scale and Kingston bowlers will get more than their share of notice. Cirillo already has done a magnificent job in this respect on his weekly radio program on Station WBYN, Brooklyn.

Jimmy Powers has demonstrated unusual personal interest in Mrs. Schatzel's career. Perhaps the fact that Rose comes from a small city and is able to compete against the big city hotshots appeals to the acid-tongued, hard-hitting Irishman. He is flying directly from Miami, Florida, to Newark airport Monday afternoon to arrive in Kingston in time for the dinner.

President Tom Davitt of the Kingston Athletic Association has been assured of the solid support of the women's contingent of bowlers. Mrs. Reta Frederick and Evelyn Dolson, secretary and president respectively of the Kingston Women's Bowling Association, can be counted on to induce the kieglerettes to attend the dinner for their outstanding member. The Daily Freeman and Chamber of Commerce also will assist in the program.

The city officials, business men, bowlers and sports fans can't afford to let this opportunity pass without capitalizing to the fullest extent. There is still time to purchase a ticket for you and yours. This can be a real show, if everyone cooperates. Mrs. Schatzel deserves a real sendoff for her trip to Grand Rapids on April 10 as representative of New York state and the Dominion of Canada in the W.B.C. Individual Sweepstakes finals.

HIGHMOUNT AT HIGH LEVEL: Highmount Ski Center near Belle Ayre mountain is rounding out a successful season under the capable management of Lincoln Christensen, Maurice Davenport and Francis Davenport. The ski run located high in the scenic Catskills is a revelation to newcomers, who are usually surprised to learn that the lowest elevation at this new development, 2,500 feet, is higher than that of any other ski resort in the eastern United States and Canada.

This high elevation, the perfect northerly exposure of the sheltered locations of the Catskill snowbowl account for its long skiing season and particularly good spring skiing. A good snow base still exists at Highmount everywhere except on the Catskill Run racing trail and should provide additional good spring skiing.

RUMBLINGS FROM ORANGE: Pete Porriano, the doughy Middletown terpin hotshot, would like to bowl a 10-game match against Johnny Ferraro with the Red Cross taking all the receipts. . . . But there's a catch to it. . . . The mighty mile thinks he has a good chance of trimming Johnny (in his Perrino's) pet pair of drives at the Middletown Recreation Center. . . . "Not in Kingston, but here," emphasizes Pete who concedes that Ferraro is just about unbeatable on his home drives (7 and 8 at the Central Rec). . . . Perrino, averaging about 195 in the Hudson Valley circuit, is going at a 198 clip in the Middletown Classic, fair proof that nobody is going to walk into Middletown Rec and blow him over—not even Ferraro. . . . The chances are good that Ferraro will accept the invitation to bowl for a worthy cause.

KAYE'S RESUME SCHEDULE: Lack of suitable opposition and tournament commitments have stymied Les Kaye's sportswear show for several weeks, but starting with this week-end, the Kayes launch an impressive late-season schedule. Matches are scheduled in Newburgh Saturday and Albany Sunday. . . . The powerful Schenectady Martha Beauty Shoppe, only team to defeat the locals in 13 matches this season, are scheduled at the Central Rec on April 12, followed on April 19 by Tillie Taylor's All Stars. . . . Miss Taylor, former W.B.C. singles champion, will come to Kingston with the strongest squad ever to appear in the city.

Ev Moore Cracks 607 Series In Colonial Women's League

Evelyn Moore, the "Blonde Bomber" of Kingston bowling circles, justified her nickname Wednesday night in the Colonial Women's Bowling League when she fired a sizzling 607, her first 600 three-timer in the loop this season.

The number one triple of the Colonial Women's League is held by Rose Schatzel who fashioned a 670 in loop bowling some time ago. In piling up her major series, Ev pumped the maples for scores of 234, 220 and 183 to pace the Evergreen team to a pair of victories over the Mayorettes. The Evergreen ace was followed in the high triple department by Reta Frederick of the Mayorettes who clubbed 551. Reta also fired a 200 singleton to lead the losers to their one lone win over the Evergreens. The Evergreens thumped a 2538 team triple without handicap and a 911 single score.

Schatzel Hits 514 Rose Schatzel, Marge Jansen, Etta Ginder and Ray Horne led the result for the Jones Dair-Elites who won two games from Pelan & Cahill. Mrs. Schatzel smashed 201-514 and Marge Jansen followed with 185-513. Etta Ginder hit 178-511, and Mrs. Horne cracked 176-506.

Other worthy scores included Bertha Schallers 193-509, Betty Lemboels 191-506 and Helen Macchios 178-505.

Czech Team Leads

Berlin, April 3 (AP)—At the end of the second round, the Czech Army team today led in the allied forces European boxing championships with seven victories against four defeats. The United States and France are tied for second place with five victories and five losses each. The tournament continues for three more nights.

It takes about 25,000 men to operate New York's subway system.

Perry's 41 in Booster League Is Smashed by Chez Emile

It had to happen sooner or later—and it finally happened Tuesday night. The 41-game Perry Restaurant winning streak in the Booster League came to an end, smashed under a 878-pin barrage fired by the Chez Emile team.

Perry's capped the first set 794-679 but the sensational streak that had endured through 14 weeks of tough competition collapsed in the middle set when Chez Emile flashed a hot hand for 878. The league leaders bounced back with an 879 score to resume their winning ways.

Joe Enright anchored Perry's with 539, with Don Peterson blasting 238 in the 879 game. K. Bonville led Chez Emile with 504.

E. Robinson Hits 584

Training Camps

Phoenix, Ariz., April 3 (AP)—Manager Mel Ott was going around with a big smile today and no one was begrudging the little Giant manager one of the few happy moments he has had in a long time.

Pitching is the Giants' big "it" but you wouldn't guess it by the way the New Yorkers' mound corps has been behaving in the last few days.

Yesterday Big Bill Voiselle came through with his second nifty hurling chore in a row when he won the full distance against the Chicago Cubs. The husky, South Carolina righthander who hung up a 21-16 record in his '44 rookie year and has been a flop since, allowed eight hits and was hit hard only in the seventh when the lone Chicago run crossed the plate. That tally broke a 19 inning scoreless streak put together by the pepped up flinging force.

Voiselle's full router followed on the heels of the corking 2-0 shut out turned in by Rookie Bill Ayers, the Southern Association prize from Atlanta. Ayers, a 6-3 righthander, showed plenty of savvy and heart in handcuffing Chicago's White Sox. He had a 21-10 year with the Crackers and a 1.95 earned run average, tops in the Southern Association last year.

Southpaws Dave Koslo and Monte Kennedy and righthander Mike Budchick also looked good their last times out.

Along with this fine pitching which has built up a five game New York win streak, the Giants have been getting some lousy clouting especially from Johnny Mize and Willard Marshall.

St. Petersburg, Fla., April 3 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals wind up spring training today and hit the trail for home via Houston, Dallas and Kansas City. The Redbirds' final exhibition here, against the Yankees, was rained out yesterday.

Little Rock, Ark., April 3 (AP)—Bob Klinger may get a chance to try out his arm for the Boston Red Sox today when the American League champions hook up with the Little Rock Southern Association club in an exhibition here. "Slider Ball" Bob has had the miseries in his elbow. He and Harry Dorish were listed as Manager Joe Cronin's probable pitching choices for today's game.

Phoenix, Ariz., April 3 (AP)—There were reports in Chicago Cub quarters today that the Cubs can have the New York Giant shortstop, Bill Rigney for Catcher Mickey Livingston plus an outfielder, but neither Cub General Manager Jim Gallagher nor Giants owner Horace Stoneham would say anything about a possible trade.

Havana, April 3 (AP)—Brooklyn Dodger boss Branch Rickey suggested to Clay Hopper, manager of the Montreal farm, that he return Jackie Robinson to first base, and the Negro star went back to that station for last night's Dodger-Royal game, which the Dodgers won 12-1.

Rickey decided that Robinson's best chance to make the Brooklyn club would be at first base although he is withholding a definite decision until after the games in Brooklyn next week.

Rickey also decided to purchase righthander Ed Chandler, last year's 20-game winner in the Texas League, from Fort Worth. He announced, too, that he was sending infielder low Welaj to Montreal and Bob Ramazotti to St. Paul.

Hotaling Blasts 236 in Federation

Jim Raymond, anchor for Clinton Avenue Team 1, fired the heaviest series in the loop with his 575. Jim also hit a 211 single.

Free License Bill Signed

Albany, N. Y., April 3 (AP)—Governor Dewey signed a bill today providing for free fishing licenses upon application by anglers 70 and older. The applicant must be a citizen and a resident of the state for at least six months prior to his application. The law becomes effective July 1.

Will Film Ruth's Life

New York, April 3 (AP)—Negotiations for the filming of Babe Ruth's life story are under way, representatives of the former home run king and Republic Pictures have announced. Mrs. Ruth said that her husband and Repub-lie executives conferred yesterday performed last January 6, once "at great length" but added she starred in a silent movie during doubted that The Babe would portend the height of his playing career. tray himself in the movie. She said also played herself in the said he might appear in an epic movie recent "The Pride of the the logue, however, Ruth, now con-Yankers," based on the life of his valet from a neck operation former teammate, Lou Gehrig.

Christopher Lynch, Popular Irish Tenor, Sings Here Wednesday

Christopher Lynch, popular tenor of the "Voice of Firestone" radio program, and protégé of the late John McCormack, will give a concert at Kingston High School Auditorium Wednesday, April 9, at 8:30 p. m., for the Kingston Community Concerts Association. Admission will be by membership card only and since this is the final concert of the season all membership cards will be collected at the door.

Mr. Lynch was born in Rathkeale, County Limerick, Ireland, 24 years ago. He came to this country last October to fulfill radio and concert commitments. He had been signed by the Firestone program for a series of winter concerts and by Arthur Judson, president of Columbia Records.

Prior to that time he was unknown in this country and had never sung over a microphone. He has studied with Dr. Vincent O'Brien, discoverer and teacher of McCormack, and Giuseppe Morelli in Rome. For a year before his death, the late John McCormack personally coached the young singer and said, "He is the one most likely to succeed me . . . I have not heard better in a quarter of a century."

Appearing with Mr. Lynch at the concert will be Melvin Ritter, violinist, and Eugene Bossart, pianist.

The program will be: "Art Thou Troubled," Handel; "Vieni che poi sereno," Gluck; "O del mio dolce ardor," Gluck; "The Sailor's Song," Haydn; "Then You'll Remember Me" from "The Bohemian Girl," Balfe.

"Lamento di Federico," from "L'Arlesiana," Gile; "Questa o Quella," from "Rigoletto," Verdi; "Oh Cease Thy Singing, Maiden Fair," Rachmaninoff; "Flirtation Waltz," Helmund; "Panis Angelicus" with violin obligato, Franck.

Violin solos: "Hungarian Dance," Brahms-Jochim; "Introduction and Tarantella," Sarasate; Mr. Ritter.

"Off in the Stilly Night," Thomas Moore; "My Lagen Love" (old Irish), arr. Sir Hamilton Hart; "The Star of the County Down" (old Irish), arr. Herbert Hughes; "All in an April Evening," J. Michael Diack; "Yarmouth Fair," Peter Warlock; "Blow Me Eyes," Albert Hay Malotte.

Business Girls Hold Easter Hat Show

In observance of the Easter season the Business and Professional Girls Club of the Y.W.C.A. held an original Easter bonnet show at its regular meeting Wednesday night. Prizes were offered for the most original and funniest.

Miss Mildred Simmons was awarded first prize for the most original, a large hat topped with a miniature house and flower garden. Miss Mary Polhemus won second prize for her hat made from a 1905 victrola record with paper doily and cluster of red roses.

For the funniest hat Mrs. Charles Winter was awarded first prize for her chicken yard hat complete with hens, rooster, wire fence surrounded by flowers. Miss Sylvia Relyea won second prize with her bonnet offering food for the Easter bunny including endive, carrots and pea pods and a small paper rabbit.

Some of the other attractive hats showed a model of a basic hat form trimmed with "kleenex", nail file and a half a dozen bottles of nailpolish; large panama trimmed with carrots; hat made from newspaper with paper doilies around the brim; large white hat trimmed with Easter basket grass; and another made from paper doilies and paper plates.

Judges were Miss Ethel Roberts, Miss Audria Stinger, Miss June Kasterle, and Miss Dolores Reina. The members brought their hats in hat boxes. The boxes were auctioned off at a small sum and the purchaser was required to wear her new hat during the dinner hour.

Afterward a Lenten program was presented with a study of the Jewish, Protestant and Catholic ways of worshipping God. Musical selections were played by Miss Reina and the club joined in singing.

Next week the supper will be served at 6 p. m. instead of the usual hour because of the Community Concert. Esther Breisemeister, eastern area secretarial advisor who works with the business and industrial girls clubs, will be the speaker. Her topic will be "Participation in the Association."

First Dutch Church Announces Annual Easter Night Pageant

The First Dutch Church will present its fifth annual Easter Pageant Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The play this year will be "Thy Kingdom Come" by Florence Converse. It is a royalty play produced by special arrangement with the Walter H. Baker Company of Boston. The story deals with four of the Galilean children whom Jesus loved and blessed. They come to the tomb and talk with the three soldiers who are on guard. The scene ends with the coming of the angels of the resurrection to roll away the stone from the tomb. The cast is as follows: Soldier who plaited the crown of thorns, James Little; soldier who pierced the side of Jesus, Donald Laidlaw; soldier who won the seamless coat, Henry Millonig; little daughter of Jairus, Juanita Dunham; boy who was an epileptic, Ronald Buchanan; lad who once had five barley loaves and two fishes, Larry Van Elten; a child whom Jesus blessed, Jean Milliken; the angel of the prophecies, Ann Page.

The Senior Choir will sing as anthems during the service. "All on an April Evening," by Robertson and "Awake, Thou That Sleepest," Sir John Stainer.

Benedictine Auxiliary Asks Patrons to Make Returns

All patrons who have not made their returns for the April Showers Charity Ball sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Benedictine Hospital are asked to do so as soon as possible so that names may be included in the published list. Miss Anne Campbell reported the returns so far have been encouraging. The ball will be held at the municipal auditorium Monday night.

Final plans and reports for the ball were made at the regular monthly meeting of the auxiliary in the Nurses' Home Tuesday evening. New members introduced were Miss Vivian Wolfertieg, Mrs. Gregory Kenyan and Mrs. John J. Van Gonsie.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, May 7, when the Rev. Father Winchell of Mt. St. Alphonsus will give an illustrated talk on the Holy Shroud.

Christopher Tappen Society Studies Flag at Meeting

The Christopher Tappen Society, Children of the American Revolution, held a study meeting on the national flag Tuesday afternoon at Wiltwyck Chapter D.A.R. House. Mrs. William MacGregor Mills, senior president, led the discussion which was based on the national flag code.

Peter Branch, president, was elected a delegate to attend the D.A.R. national congress at Washington, D. C., in May. Plans were made for the supper party April 29. Movies will be shown of the Southern D.A.R. School at Tamassee.

Personal Notes

Kerhonkson Youth

Is Reported Missing

Robert Kortright, 17, of Kerhonkson, R.F.D., disappeared from his home on February 23 and has not been heard from since. His parents are most anxious to have the lad communicate with them or have anyone who may know his whereabouts notify them. His father, George Kortright, has notified Sheriff Smith of the affair and today stated that he was anxious to have the lad contact his home. Anyone knowing of the lad's whereabouts may communicate by phone, Kerhonkson 2655, with the parents.

When he left home Robert was wearing yellow rubber boots, plaid jacket, brown shirt and overalls. He is 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs about 150 pounds and has brown hair and blue eyes. It is not believed the lad has met with foul play.

Feast of Passover

Passover (Pesach), the Feast of Liberation from Egyptian slavery, begins on Friday evening and will be observed for eight days ending Saturday evening, April 12. It commemorates the departure of the Hebrews from Pharaoh's Egypt and has, for thousands of years, been celebrated by special home ceremonies called Seder. In line with the Biblical injunction, families observe the Seder night with a special Pesach ritual contained in the Hagadah, which relates the tale of Passover. The home ceremony is rich in symbols and is climaxed by the Pesach supper. During the Pesach week, observant Jews will eat no leavened food, especially bread, substituting the "unleavened bread" or matzo for it.

Temple Emanuel

Passover services will be held Friday, 6:15 p. m., instead of at 7:45. This change is due to the Passover holiday. There will be a Saturday morning service at 10 o'clock.

Due to the holiday there will be no religious school Sunday morning. The Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel will meet Wednesday, April 9, 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Joseph Levine, Mountain View avenue.

Ahavath Israel

Congregation Ahavath Israel, 72 Wurts street, Frank D. Plotke, rabbi—Passover (Pesach) services on Friday and Saturday evening at 6:15 o'clock. Morning services on Saturday and Sunday at 9. ## Farmers Have Say On Conservation Fund Allotment

At a recent meeting of the farm-committee of Ulster county, held at the court house in Kingston, committee members were asked to give their opinions as to what was the best way to administer federal funds allotted for conserving the soil and water resources of the county. Among specific recommendations made by the Ulster county farmers present were:

Increase the cost of lime supplied through the agricultural conservation program so that farmers would have to pay 50 per cent of the cost.

Include wheat with rye and rye grass as a suitable winter cover crop to earn farmers the payment of $2.50 per acre for thus assuring that their soil would not wash or blow away.

Increase the payments for reforestation in order to encourage more people to reforest areas no longer suited to agricultural production and in so doing to save at its source one of the most valuable water supplies.

Such as now operated the federal practice which earn farmers cash payments when completed.

Parking Charges Will Be Inexpensive Here

Charge for using the new parking meters in the city will be almost as inexpensive as a hop on a penny weighing scale, it was learned today.

One cent in the slot will permit parking for 12 minutes, two for 24, and so on up to an hour after which the nickel rate begins. Even the cost for "hogging" a spot, will not run as high as the gas it would take for a half dozen trips around a block.

Hoess Must Die

But even should he do so this seemed certain to be denied. No date was set for the execution.

In the trial, the prosecution accused Hoess of supervising the gassing and cremation of some 3,000,000 Jews and 1,000,000 other men, women and children from a dozen countries—including Poland, Russia, Hungary, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Czechoslovakia—at the camp in southwestern Poland, 32 miles west of Krakow.

Hoess, commandant at Oswiecim from mid-1941 to the end of 1943, questioned this figure. He said he could count only 2,500,000 victims. He took responsibility for carrying out the exterminations, but blamed superiors for instigation of the policy.

Hoess, who has a wife and five children in Germany, told the tribunal once that he would have thrown them all into the Oswiecim furnaces had he been ordered to do so. The British, who questioned Mrs. Hoess at Hamburg in December, 1945, said they found her house full of clothes and jewelry taken from executed Jews.

attempting to escape were prevented by a pile up at a small dock.

"It was outside at the time," he said, "and saw smoke coming from the room in which Joe Herst was cutting wings for toy buzz bombs. I rushed back into the room. I went to a big sliding door but couldn't get it open, so I went back outside and tried to get the door open from the outside."

"A small child in the larger sliding door was open, but the workers were so jammed in that small opening that they couldn't get out."

Clinton, about 100 miles southeast of Kansas City, has a population of 6,000.

Floyd Shepard, a worker whose wife died in the fire, told a reporter that she was being led from the building when she suddenly remembered her daughter-in-law was in the plant. She cried, "Oh, Hazel," and ran back into the building. Her body was found later.

charge that the Centralia miners died "because of criminal negligence of J. A. Krug."

Recalling that he had made a statement originally before a Senate hearing last week, Lewis told the committee:

"I have not said that J. A. Krug by an affirmative action killed these men. I say that by his inaction he has permitted them to die."

"He withheld from them succor that it was in his power to give . . . he stands at the top with nothing to stop him from making the coal mines safe, except his lack of desire to do so."

But asked by Rep. Keams (R., Pa.) whether private owners carried out safety measures better than the government, Lewis replied: "No, worse."

The U.M.W. chief added quickly "that doesn't excuse the government for not enforcing its own contract terms."

This was reference to a mine safety code provision in the U.M.W. contract with the government.

Frequently emphasizing his remarks by banging his fist on a table, Lewis said the miners "died traps" and declared that "every man who goes to work in a coal mine will be statistically killed or injured every six years."

telephone unions threatens to call Monday.

The company made no direct comment on this report, from Henry Mayer, counsel for several unions, but said in a statement issued last night that "we are talking strenuously to our service."

"We are making every effort to reach a satisfactory agreement with the unions," the company said. "If any situation should develop which might affect our service, the company will do everything it can to maintain telephone service to the public."

Mayer told reporters the New York and other companies in the Bell System had "augmented their supervisory forces enormously" in recent months in expectation of a strike of rank and file workers.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Marion Horn, executive chairman of the Traffic Employees Association, announced that more than 10,000 local operators in the metropolitan area had voted "almost unanimously" in favor of a strike "when necessary."

She said counting of ballots cast last night was continuing today.

Economy Smash Feared by Many In Connecticut

Hartford, Conn., April 3 (AP)—

Fears that dissension and confusion might weaken and perhaps wreck the whole current legislative economy drive have been expressed by many veteran capitol observers.

Opinions to that effect were numerous last night after former House Speaker E. Lea Marsh, Jr. (R.-Old Lyme) had resigned from the General Assembly. Special Economy Study Committee and Senator Alfred F. Wechsler (D.) had charged Governor James L. McConaughy and Republican leaders with "definitely attempting to scuttle the economy program."

In a day of heated political battling, the future of the special committee was a major issue, and when the legislators recessed for the night indications were that a showdown fight would develop on the floors of both chambers today.

The committee, which recently recommended methods to effect $11,600,000 in savings over the next two years, further sought powers for an extended investigation and urged that the General Assembly convene in special session next January to act on new economy suggestions.

Until January the committee's recommendation that it be continued until January 1948 was voiced first by the governor at a press conference. He said the life of the group should be limited to the current session.

His opposition to the committee's special session proposal, was based on the fact that the voters had defeated a constitutional amendment which would have authorized annual meetings of the Legislature. He also asserted he considered sufficient machinery was available to effect economies while the General Assembly was not in session.

Republican leaders, likewise, recorded themselves against a special legislative meeting and asserted that the committee should continue only for the remainder of the present session and cooperate with the regular appropriations group.

Marsh, House speaker in 1945 and Republican House majority chairman in 1943, who has bolted the present leadership on previous occasions, thereupon resigned, saying that proposals of the party heads would "emasculate" the committee. Under such restrictions, he said, the group could not accomplish its objectives.

Cloth on Log, Not Struggling Swimmer

Police today investigated a call from a woman in Rhinecliff who said she feared that someone was struggling in the waters of the Hudson in an attempt to reach shore.

Officers Earl Schoonmaker and William A. Krum informed Captain Chris Tierney of the Kingston-Rhinecliff ferry of the call just before he left on a trip from this side.

Capt. Tierney telephoned from the other side of the river that a piece of white cloth caught on a floating log beyond the lighthouse, was the apparent cause of the woman's concern.

Mother Slayer Gives Eyes to Blind Veterans

Columbus, O., April 3 (AP)—

Cornelius translated from the eyes of Russell Eugene Koons, executed last night in the Ohio Penitentiary's electric chair for the hatchet slaying of his mother, were to be used today at New York city to restore sight to two blind war veterans.

The frail 23-year-old Springfield, O., navy veteran bequeathed the corneas to the eye bank for sight, restoration while waiting out his final hours in death row. He said the sight of blinded veterans while he was on Guadalupe inspired his gift.

Immediately after two 2200 volt electric charges exacted the death penalty, anonymous surgeons lifted the corneas from Koons' eyes, sealed them in a special container and dispatched them to New York city by plane.

The corneas were addressed to Dr. Ramon Castrovieja of the Columbia University Medical Center.

Awarded $60,000

Hudson, N. Y., April 3 (AP)—Charles Hallenbeck, Jr., 16, who was blinded by explosives he obtained on Lone Star Cement Company property, was awarded $60,000 today in Supreme Court.

Monell Herzberg, company attorney, announced he would take the case to the Appellate Division. Charles obtained the explosives, a dynamite cap and primer cord, October 21, 1945. Herzberg, who said Charles had trespassed on company property, told the jury he was "an intelligent boy, and should have realized the danger to which he was exposing himself."

Yerry on Union Trip

George E. Yerry, Jr., president of Carpenter's Union Local 1175 and business agent of the Kingston Metal Trades Council, left for Indianapolis, Ind., today to attend the installation ceremony of General President William Hutchison and his staff of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. Mr. Yerry will discuss organizational matters affecting local conditions with the general executive board.

Letter on Piping Tannery Brook Is Sent to Residents

to pipe the Tannery brook and a petition form to be signed and returned, were mailed out today to property owners in the area by Ernest A. Steuding, superintendent of public works.

Support of the councilmen, when the project is ready for submission to the Common Council, was asked Tuesday night at a regular session by Alderman Victor H. Rot of the 12th ward.

The letter to the property owners stresses the point that they "have been undoubtedly aware of the unsanitary and disintegrating condition" of the stream.

It explains the decision to make it a city-wide project because the brook drains through parts of the 1st, 10th, 11th and 12th wards, and reported that "It is believed this brook can be piped this year."

Plans, the letter said, were started "during the war under post-war projects, and detailed plans are expected to follow as soon as enough petitions indicate that it is desired. April 12 was set as the deadline date for return of the petitions.

New High Speed Rail System Set For Long Island

New York, April 3 (AP)—A plan for high-speed railway service through an enlarged Long Island railway network—which would extend the commuting radius of the Long Island railroad to the far reaches of Long Island and New Jersey without transfer became known today.

Originator of the venture—said to be one of the most ambitious to be considered by private capital—is former State Senator John A. Hastings, who has participated in a number of large scale financial undertakings in the United States and Mexico.

Preliminary surveys already have been made and the plan is under consideration by some of the leading financiers, including William R. Daley, president of the Cleveland, Ohio, banking firm of Otis & Co., and his associate, Cyrus S. Eaton.

Daley said in Cleveland today that his firm was interested in the project, but that "it is in a very tentative stage now and there is nothing further on the matter I can say."

The plan would include the purchase of the Long Island railroad, installation of spur lines to sparsely populated points on Long Island and construction of tunnels under the Hudson and East rivers for direct entrance into mid-town, Manhattan, and a system of zone fares of between 10 and 15 cents to any point in the area.

Four underground stations in Manhattan would be constructed at even intervals across the island and train reaching Manhattan from Long Island would emerge in New Jersey to connect with the Erie railroad. It is expected that lines eventually would tie in with the New York Central System and the suburbs.

Final plans were expected to be completed in two or three months and the next step would be formation of a corporation, with a capitalization of some $300,000, and then negotiations for the purchase of the Long Island.

'Red' Gorsline, Corrigan Among Five Area Players With Dodgers

Newhart and Boyer Also With Group At Carolina Camp

"Red" Gorsline, of Kingston, and Tom Corrigan, Tillson catcher, are among five Hudson valley district hopefuls going through daily workouts at the Brooklyn Dodgers' Class D and C training camp at Thomasville, North Carolina.

The Thomasville staging area for Dodger minor league clubs in the lower classifications opened last Thursday, with Bobby Newhart, the crack Highland Falls second baseman; Earl Lane, of Windham, and hard-hitting Bobby Boyer, of Poughkeepsie, joining Gorsline and Corrigan.

Although the Dodgers have not committed themselves on the idea, it is believed that this well known quintet will be assigned to the Kingston club, if they make the grade.

It seems a foregone conclusion that Newhart, voted the outstanding player in the K.A.A. junior game here last summer, will nail down the second base position. He is a brilliant youngster who appears headed for eventual stardom.

Gorsline Has Chance
Gorsline, former K.H.S. luminary who has played every position except score keeping and umpiring, will be assigned definitely to the outfield. At least that was the impression given by "Turk" Karam at the Dodger training school conducted at municipal stadium.

Corrigan is remembered by Kingston as a catcher for the Recreations in the declining stages of the 1946 season. Before he came to Ulster county, Corrigan played 29 games with Federalburg in the Eastern Shore League. He is a fair receiver and hitter but his age is expected to mitigate against him.

Paul Taylor, business manager of the Kingston Dodgers signed Corrigan to his contract but warned him that unless he demonstrated unusual skill he would be released because of his age.

Testimonial Speaker

Famous New York sports columnist whose daily column "The Powerhouse" in the Daily News is often the most controversial in sports writing circles, will be the principal speaker at the testimonial to be given Rose Schatzel, Kingston's outstanding woman bowler, on Monday, April 7, at The Barn. The testimonial is sponsored by the Kingston Athletic Association and is expected to prove one of the most colorful sports events in local history. The Chamber of Commerce, the Kingston Daily Freeman and the Kingston Women's Bowling Association also are cooperating in the affair. Mr. Powers will fly directly from Miami, Florida to Newark airport on Monday, arriving at 2:30 and will be driven to Kingston.

With three powerful Kingston quintets slated for action tonight in the Ulster-Greene Basketball Tournament, indications are that all of the extra seats provided by Lou Schafer at the municipal auditorium will be filled to capacity when the first game gets underway at 7:15 o'clock between the Kingston American Legion and V.F.W.

Testimonial Speaker

Famous New York sports columnist whose daily column "The Powerhouse" in the Daily News is often the most controversial in sports writing circles, will be the principal speaker at the testimonial to be given Rose Schatzel, Kingston's outstanding woman bowler, on Monday, April 7, at The Barn. The testimonial is sponsored by the Kingston Athletic Association and is expected to prove one of the most colorful sports events in local history. The Chamber of Commerce, the Kingston Daily Freeman and the Kingston Women's Bowling Association also are cooperating in the affair. Mr. Powers will fly directly from Miami, Florida to Newark airport on Monday, arriving at 2:30 and will be driven to Kingston.

With three powerful Kingston quintets slated for action tonight in the Ulster-Greene Basketball Tournament, indications are that all of the extra seats provided by Lou Schafer at the municipal auditorium will be filled to capacity when the first game gets underway at 7:15 o'clock between the Kingston American Legion and V.F.W.

Rosendale Merchants To Observe Good Friday

Business people of the village of Rosendale have joined in the movement to close their places of business for two hours on Good Friday in order that they and their employees may attend church services. Mayor Vaughan stated today that the stores would remain closed from 1 until 3 o'clock. This movement to close business places for a time on Good Friday has gained considerable support in several of the villages and towns of the county.

The State of New York has taken recognition of the Easter season too and state employees of the Christian faith will be allowed time off both today and Good Friday to attend Holy Week religious services. On Good Friday state employees may leave their work for the day at 11 a. m. and today Civil Service Commissioner J. Edward Conway notified department heads that employees need not report for work until 1 p. m.

Weaver, Rienzo Picked on All-Duso Five

Chicago to Play Rochester
Rochester, N. Y., April 3 (AP)—The Chicago American Gears and the Rochester (N.Y.) Royals, winners of two preliminary series, tonight meet here in the first of a five-game series for the championship of the National Basketball League. The second game of the title playoff between the Eastern and Western Division champions will be at Rochester Saturday night. The series then shifts to Chicago's International Amphitheatre for the last three games, if necessary, next Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Glaser and Ghear Named on Second Team by Writers

Kingston High School's famed one-two scoring punch, better known as Big Eddie Weaver and Mike Rienzo, have been unanimously selected on the 1946-47 All DUSO basketball team by the Hudson Valley Sportswriters' Association, Ralph Frederick of Port Jervis announced today.

Two other stalwarts of this season's pennant-winning team, George Glaser and Bobby Ghear, were named on the league's second team, while Harry Koch, reserve guard, was elected for honorable mention.

Other First Stringers
Besides the two Kingston cagers, the association selected Al Benjamin of Liberty for the other forward slot with Rienzo. The guards are Charlie Holland of Liberty and Charlie "Red" Murray of Middletown.

The only unanimous selections on this year's squad were Weaver and Rienzo, two of the finest ball players in the scholastic loop this season. Weaver, a four letter man at K.H.S., emerged from the league play this season as highest individual scorer. Rienzo, on the other hand, was equally as dangerous in the minds of the writers. Mike, the fiery type ball player from the word go, was a vital key in every Maroon contest throughout the long campaign.

Other players selected for the second squad with Glaser and Ghear were Earl Halprin of Monticello at forward, Don Huffmire of Liberty, center; and a tie between Jack McDaniels of Middletown and Jay Hodges of Newburgh for the other guard position.

Huffmire, runner-up to Weaver for individual scoring honors, was the only other noteworthy pivot man in the loop this season and his choice for the second string team was expected in all corners. Huffmire led Weaver for most of the year until Ed found the range in the Newburgh game. After that it was Weaver.

Besides Harry Koch, Kingston guard, for honorable mention, the writer voted berths to Mort Kaplan, Monticello forward; Davey Litvack, Monticello guard; and Dominick Morando, Port Jervis forward.

Billiard Results

Harry Markle scored a 125 to 102 victory over Myrie Russell in the city pocket billiard tournament held at Nick Kasich's Academy, 297 Wall street, Wednesday night. Both players stroked high runs of 17.

Tonight's battle will feature Eddie Benoit and Harry Markle at 7:30 o'clock.

Next Boxing Show Thursday, April 17

There will be no B'nai B'rith boxing show at the municipal auditorium on Thursday night, April 10.

The next card of ring attractions planned by the organization is for April 17.

This was announced today by Dr. Saul Goldfarb, who as chairman of the boxing committee, said that next week's date would interfere with observance of a religious holy period.

He was not prepared to say whether the Johnny Marchese-Paul Simpson match would headline the card on the 17th, but may not be available for the new date.

"This postponement, regardless of what happens to the Marchese-Simpson bout, will give us time to look up some of the leading Golden Gloves winners," said Dr. Goldfarb.

In The Pocket with CHARLIE TIANO

L'AFFAIRE CELEBRE: The combination testimonial to Rose Schatzel, the Kingston High School 1947 DUSO basketball champions, and the personal appearance of Jimmy Powers, famous sports columnist of the Daily News, marks another significant milestone in the brief but brilliant history of the Kingston Athletic Association. The affair, scheduled for Monday, April 7 at The Barn, is an outstanding occasion in local sports history and merits the solid support of all sports fans of the city.

The appearance of Jimmy Powers in Kingston is in itself a tremendous boost for the city. Powers already has given Kingston bowling several sparkling "plugs" in his Powerhouse and only yesterday profiled Mrs. Schatzel and Mayor Edelmuth. Neither Mr. Powers' decision to accept an invitation offered by the K.A.A. nor the excellent publicity he has given Kingston just happened. It required promotion of the highest type and in this respect Al Cirillo, Powers' bowling editor, must be given an assist.

Cirillo can and will do Kingston bowling publicity much good in the future in his capacity as bowling editor of the News. Powers plans bowling coverage on an expanded scale and Kingston bowlers will get more than their share of posies. Cirillo already has done a magnificent job in this respect on his weekly radio program on Station WBYN, Brooklyn.

Jimmy Powers has demonstrated unusual personal interest in Mrs. Schatzel's career. Perhaps the fact that Rose comes from a small city and is able to compete against the big city hotshots appeals to the acid-tongued, hard-hitting Irishman. He is flying directly from Miami, Florida, to Newark airport Monday afternoon to arrive in Kingston in time for the dinner.

President Tom Davitt of the Kingston Athletic Association has been assured of the solid support of the women's contingent of bowlers! Mrs. Reta Frederick and Evelyn Dolson, secretary and president respectively of the Kingston Women's Bowling Association, can be counted on to induce the kieglerettes to attend the dinner for their outstanding member. The Daily Freeman and Chamber of Commerce also will assist in the program.

The city officials, business men, bowlers and sports fans can't afford to let this opportunity pass without capitalizing to the fullest extent. There is still time to purchase a ticket for you and yours. This can be a real show, if everyone cooperates. Mrs. Schatzel deserves a real send-off for her trip to Grand Rapids on April 10 as representative of New York state and the Dominion of Canada in the W.B.C. Individual Sweepstakes finals.

HIGHMOUNT AT HIGH LEVEL: Highmount Ski Center near Belle Ayre mountain is rounding out a successful season under the capable management of Lincoln Christensen, Maurice Davenport and Francis Davenport. The ski run located high in the scenic Catskills is a revelation to newcomers, who are usually surprised to learn that the lowest elevation at this new development, 2,500 feet, is higher than that of any other ski resort in the eastern United States and Canada.

This high elevation, the perfect northerly exposure of the sheltered locations of the Catskill snowfield account for its long skiing season and particularly good spring skiing. A good snow base still exists at Highmount everywhere except on the Catskill Run racing trail and should provide additional good spring skiing.

RUMBLINGS FROM ORANGE: Pete Perrino, the doughy Middletown tenpin hotshot, would like to bowl a 10-game match against Johnny Ferraro with the Red Cross taking all the receipts. . . . But there's a catch to it. . . . The mighty mite thinks he has a good chance of trimming Johnny on his (Perrino's) pet pair of drives at the Middletown Recreation Center. . . . "Not in Kingston, but here," emphasizes Pete who concedes that Ferraro is just about unbeatable on his home drives (7 and 8 at the Central Recs) . . . Perrino, averaging about 195 in the Hudson Valley circuit, is going at a 198 clip in the Middletown Classic, fair proof that nobody is going to walk into Middletown Rec and blow him over—not even Ferraro. . . . The chances are good that Ferraro will accept the invitation to bowl for a worthy cause.

KAYE'S RESUME SCHEDULE: Lack of suitable opposition and tournament commitments have stymied Lou Kantowitz's Kaye Sportswear girls squad for several weeks but starting with this week-end, the Kayes launch an impressive late-season schedule. Matches are scheduled in Newburgh Saturday and Albany Sunday. . . . The powerful Schenectady Martha Beauty Shoppe, only team to defeat the locals in 13 matches this season, are scheduled at the Central Recs on April 12, followed on April 19 by Tillie Taylor's All Stars. . . . Miss Taylor, former W.B.C. singles champion, will come to Kingston with the strongest squad ever to appear in the city.

Ev Moore Cracks 607 Series In Colonial Women's League

Evelyn Moore, the "Blonde Bomber" of Kingston bowling circles, justified her nickname Wednesday night in the Colonial Women's Bowling League when she fired a sizzling 607, her first 600 three-timer in the loop this season.

The number one triple of the Colonial Women's League is held by Rose Schatzel who fashioned a 670 in loop bowling some time ago.

In piling up her major series, Ev pummeled the maples for scores of 204, 220 and 183 to pace the Evergreen Inn team to a pair of victories over the Mayorettes.

The Evergreen ace was followed by Bertha Schallers 193-509, Betty Helmbolds 191-506 and Helen Zaczehos 178-505.

Czech Team Leads
Berlin, April 3 (AP)—At the end of the second round, the Czech Army team today led in the allied forces European boxing championships with seven victories against four defeats. The United States and France are tied for second place with five victories and five losses each. The tournament continues for three more nights.

It takes about 25,000 men to operate New York's subway systems.

Perry's 41 in Booster League Is Smashed by Chez Emile

It had to happen sooner or later—and it finally happened Tuesday night. The 41-game Perry Restaurant winning streak in the Booster League came to an end, smashed under a 878-pin barrage fired by the Chez Emile team.

Perry's copped the first set 794-679 but the sensational skein that had endured through 14 weeks of tough competition collapsed in the middle set when Chez Emile flashed a hot hand for 878. The league leaders bounced back with an 879 score to resume their winning ways.

Enright anchored Perry's with 539, with Don Petersen blasting 538 in the 8th game. K. Bonville led Chez Emile with 594.

E. Robinson Hits 504
Elwood Robinson packed 224-594 as Carnright's Dairy shut out

Montgomery Ward's, Tony Bonomo's 471 was high for Wards.

Charlie Diers, with 191-502, paced the S. & C. Lunch to a split decision over the Moose. C. Amato had 179-481 for Moose.

Kingston Oil took the odd set from Haber's Grill. B. Schwartz hitting 208 and G. Hoffman 456. J. Grube posted 433 high for Habers.

Lincoln Park Inn shut out Co. B as John Scully whacked 200 and 485. K. Houghtaling shot 394 for Co. B. Greenleaf Restaurant blanked Ramsey Corp., J. Brookes reeling off 193-523. P. Trorigan paced Ramsey's with 454.

Sam Moss set the example for his own Sam's Restaurant kiegler in a 3-0 win over the Independent Married Men. Ed Wyan had 480. A Cohen's 420 topped the I.M.M.

Training Camps

Phoenix, Ariz., April 3 (AP)—Manager Mel Ott was going around with a big smile today and no one was begrudging the little Giant manager one of the few happy moments he has had in a long time.

Pitching is the Giants' big "if" but you wouldn't guess it by the way the New Yorkers' mound corps has been behaving in the last few days.

Yesterday Big Bill Voiselle came through with his second nifty hurling chore in a row when he went the full distance against the Chicago Cubs. The husky, South Carolina righthander who hung up a 21-16 record in his '44 rookie year and has been a flop since, allowed eight hits and was hit hard only in the seventh when the lone Chicago run crossed the plate. That tally broke a 19 inning scoreless streak put together by the pepped up flingur force.

Voiselle's full router followed on the heels of the rookie 2-0 shut out turned in by Rookie Bill Ayers, the Southern Association prize from Atlanta. Ayers, a 6-3 righthander, showed plenty of savvy and heart in handcuffing Chicago's White Sox. He had a 21-10 year with the Crackers and a 1.95 earned run average, tops in the Southern Association last year.

Southpaws Dave Koslo and Monte Kennedy and righthander Mike Budnick also looked good their last times out.

Along with this fine pitching which has built up a five game New York win streak, the Giants have been getting some lusty clouting especially from Johnny Mize and Willard Marshall.

St. Petersburg, Fla., April 3 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals wind up spring training today and hit the trail for home via Houston, Dallas and Kansas City. The Redbirds' final exhibition here, against the Yankees, was rained out yesterday.

Little Rock, Ark., April 3 (AP)—Bob Klingner may get a chance to try out his arm for the Boston Red Sox today when the American League champions hook up with the Little Rock Southern Association club in an exhibition here. "Sinker Ball" Bob has had the miseries in his elbow. He and Harry Dorish were listed as Manager Joe Cronin's probable pitching choices for today's game.

Phoenix, Ariz., April 3 (AP)—There were reports in Chicago Cub quarters today that the Cubs can have the New York Giant shortstop, Bill Rigney for Catcher Mickey Livingston plus an outfielder, but neither Cub General Manager Jim Gallagher nor Giants owner Horace Stoham would say anything about a possible trade.

Havana, April 3 (AP)—Brooklyn Dodger boss Branch Rickey suggested to Clay Hopper, manager of the Montreal farm, that he return Jackie Robinson to first base, and the Negro star went back to that station for last night's Dodger-Royal game, which the Dodgers won 12-7.

Rickey decided that Robinson's best chance to make the Brooklyn club would be at first base although he is withholding a definite decision until after the games in Brooklyn next week.

Rickey also decided to purchase righthander Ed Chandler, last year's 20-game winner in the Texas League, from Fort Worth. He announced, too, that he was sending infielder low Welaj to Montreal and Bob Ramazotti to St. Paul.

Hotaling Blasts 236 in Federation

Les Hotaling of the First Presbyterian squad topped the National Federation League scores Wednesday night with a resounding 236 single. Hotaling finished with a 545 triple to lead the Eagles to a pair of wins over Fair Street.

Jim Raymond, anchor for Clinton Avenue Team 1, fired the heaviest series in the loop with his 575. Jim also hit a 211 single.

Orv Van Alstyne followed with 203-559, Davis 213-543, Bill Thomas 204-538, N. Hornbeck 190-536, Evans 199-513 and C. Lindquist 173-510.

Free License Bill Signed

Albany, N. Y., April 3 (AP)—Governor Dewey signed a bill today providing for free fishing licenses upon application by anglers 70 and older. The applicant must be a citizen and a resident of the state for at least six months prior to his application. The law becomes effective July 1.

Will Film Ruth's Life

New York, April 3 (AP)—Negotiations for the filming of Babe Ruth's life story are under way, representatives of the former home run king and Republic Pictures have announced. Mrs. Ruth said that her husband and Republic executives conferred yesterday "at great length" but added she doubted that The Babe would portray himself in the movie. She said he might appear in an episode, however. Ruth, now convalescing from a neck operation performed last January 6, once starred in a silent movie during the height of his playing career, and also played himself in the more recent "The Pride of the Yankees" based on the life of his former teammate, Lou Gehrig.

Farmers Have Say On Conservation Fund Allotment

At a recent meeting of the farmer-committee of Ulster county, held at the court house in Kingston, committee members were asked to give their opinions as to what was the best way to administer federal funds allotted for conserving the soil and water resources of the county. Among specific recommendations made by the Ulster county farmers present were:

Increase the cost of lime supplied through the agricultural conservation program so that farmers would have to pay 50 per cent of the cost.

Include wheat with rye and grass as a suitable winter cover crop to earn farmers the payment of $250 per acre for thus assuring that their soil would not wash or blow away.

Increase the payments for reforestation in order to encourage more people to reforest areas no longer suited to agricultural production and in so doing to save, at its source, our most valuable water supply.

Include as now operated the other 21 practices which earn farmers cash payments when completed.

In summarizing the points out at the meeting, Robert J. Howard, state director of the Production and Marketing Administration, pointed out that no farmer should expect to make any money on the payments extended to him through the agricultural conservation program. Rather, he said, this aid should be looked upon as some assurance that federal funds were being used for assistance to farmers in order to preserve the country's soils for future generations.

Parking Charges Will Be Inexpensive Here

Charge for using the new parking meters in the city will be almost as inexpensive as a hop on a penny weighing scale, it was learned today.

One cent in the slot will permit parking for 12 minutes, two for 24, and so on up to an hour after which the nickel rate begins. Even the cost for "hogging" a spot, will not run as high as the gas it would take for a half dozen trips around a block.

Hoess Must Die

ency, but even should he do so this seemed certain to be denied. No date was set for the execution.

In the trial, the prosecution accused Hoess of supervising the gassing and cremation of some 3,000,000 Jews and 1,000,000 other men, women and children from a dozen countries—including Poland, Russia, Hungary, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Czechoslovakia—at the camp in southwestern Poland, 32 miles west of Krakow.

Hoess, commandant at Oswiecim from mid-1941 to the end of 1943, questioned this figure. He said he could count only 2,500,000 victims. He took responsibility for carrying out the exterminations, but blamed superiors for institution of the policy.

Hoess, who has a wife and five children in Germany, told the tribunal once that he would have thrown them all into the Oswiecim furnaces had he been ordered to do so. The British, who questioned Mrs. Hoess at Hamburg in December, 1945, said they found her house full of clothes and jewelry taken from executed Jews.

attempting to escape were prevented by a pile up at a small door.

"I was outside at the time," he said, "and saw smoke coming from the room in which Joe Herst was cutting wings for toy buzz bombs. I rushed back into the room. I went to a big sliding door but couldn't get it open, so I went back outside and tried to get the door open from the outside."

"A small door in the larger sliding door was open, but the workmen were jammed in that small opening that they couldn't get out."

Clinton, about 100 miles southeast of Kansas City, has a population of 6,000.

Floyd Shepard, a worker whose wife died in the fire, told a reporter that she was being led from the building when she suddenly remembered her daughter-in-law was in the plant. She cried, "Oh, Hazel," and ran back into the building. Her body was found later in the debris.

The daughter-in-law, Hazel Shepard, was burned critically.

charge that the Centralia miners died "because of criminal negligence of J. A. Krug."

Recalling that he had made the statement originally before a Senate hearing last week, Lewis told the committee:

"I have said that J. A. Krug by an affirmative action killed these men. I say that by his inaction he has permitted them to die."

"He withheld from them succor that it was in his power to give," he stands at the top with nothing to stop him from making the coal mines safe, except his lack of desire to do so."

But asked by Rep. Kearns (R.-Pa.) whether private owners carried out safety measures better than the government, Lewis replied: "No, worse."

The U.M.W. chief added quickly that "that doesn't excuse the government for not enforcing its own contract terms."

This was reference to a mine safety code provision in the U.M.W. contract with the government.

Frequently emphasizing his remarks by banging his fist on a table, Lewis called the mines "death traps" and declared that "every man who goes to work in a coal mine will be statistically killed or injured every six years."

telephone unions threatens to call Monday.

The company made no direct comment on this report, from Henry Mayer, counsel for several unions, but said in a statement issued last night that "we are taking steps to care for the supervisory employees who may have to work unusual hours if telephone service is interrupted."

"We are making every effort to reach a satisfactory agreement with the unions," the company said. "If any situation should develop which might affect our service, the company will do everything it can to maintain telephone service to the public."

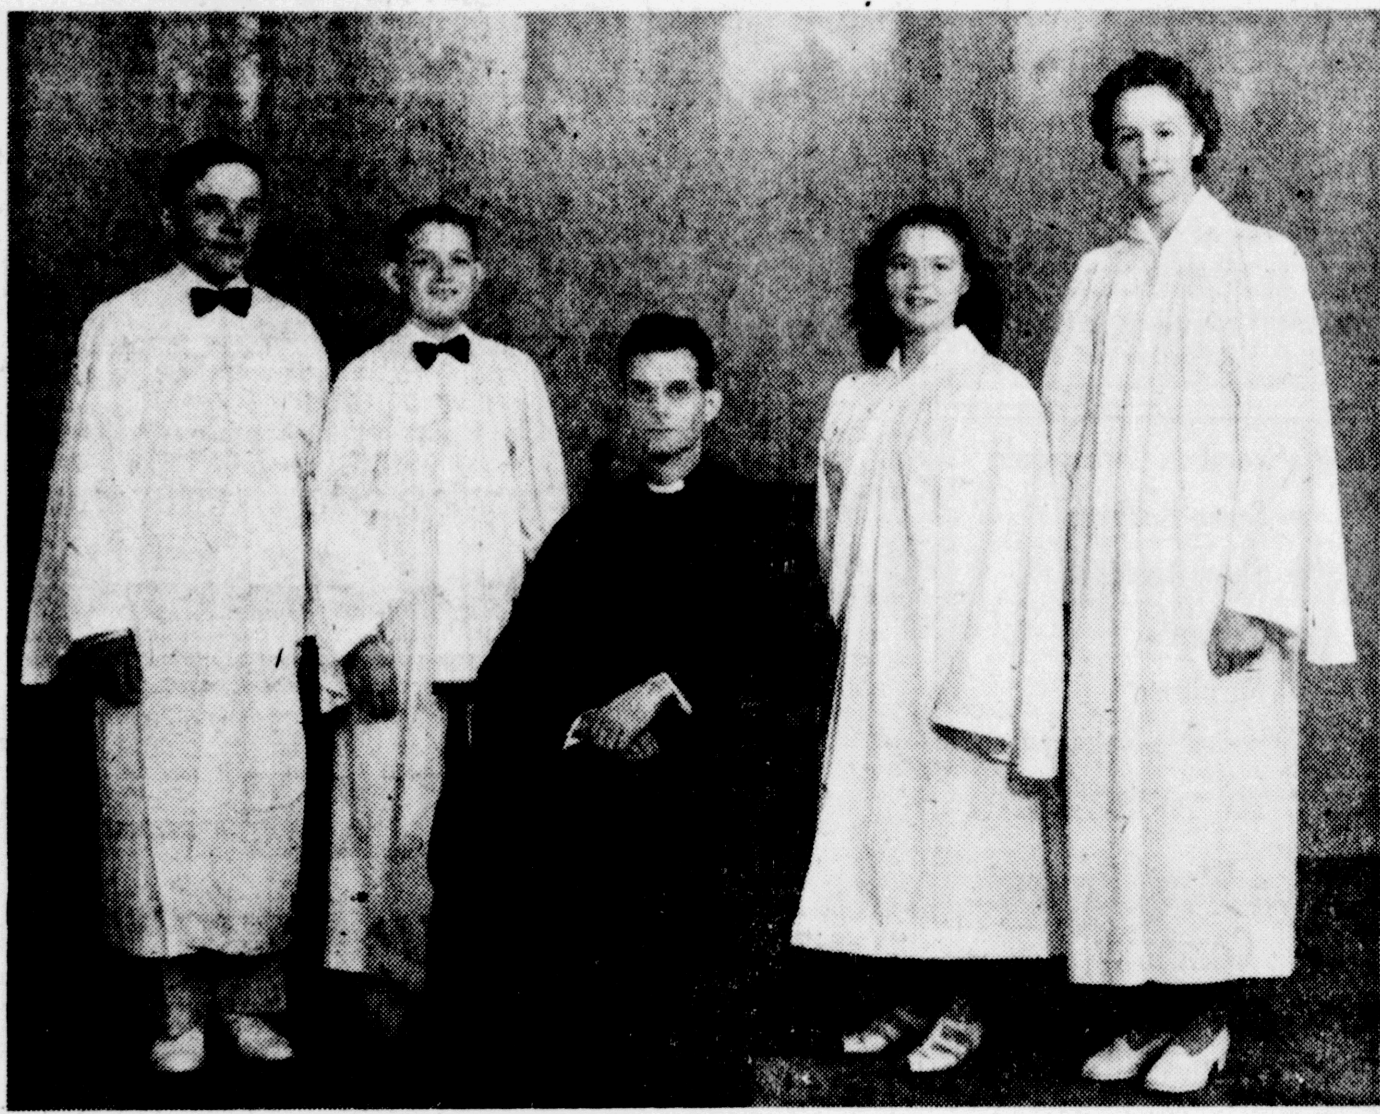

Mayer told reporters the New York and other companies in the Bell System had "augmented their supervisory forces enormously" in recent months in expectation of a strike of rank and file workers.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Marion Horn, executive chairman of the Traffic Employees Association, announced that more than 10,000 local operators in the metropolitan area had voted "almost unanimously" in favor of a strike "when necessary."

She said counting of ballots cast last night was continuing today.

Economy Smash Feared by Many In Connecticut

Hartford, Conn., April 3 (AP)—

Fears that dissension and confusion might weaken and perhaps wreck the whole current legislative economy drive have been expressed by many veteran capitol observers.

Opinions to that effect were numerous last night after former Speaker E. Lea Marsh, Jr. (R-Old Lyme) had resigned from the General Assembly. Special Economy Study Committee and Senator Alfred F. Wechsler (D.) had charged Governor James L. McConaughy and Republican leaders with "definitely attempting to scuttle the economy program."

In a day of heated political battling, the future of the special committee was a major issue, and when the legislators recessed for the night indications were that a showdown fight would develop on the floors of both chambers today.

The committee, which recently recommended methods to effect $11,600,000 in savings over the next two years, further sought powers for an extended investigation and urged that the General Assembly convene in special session next January to act on new economy suggestions.

Hostility to the committee's recommendation that it be continued until January 1948 was voiced first by the governor at a press conference. He said the life of the group should be limited to the current session.

His opposition to the committee's special session proposal, the governor declared, was based on the fact that the voters had defeated a constitutional amendment annual meetings of the Legislature. He also asserted he considered sufficient machinery was available to effect economies while the General Assembly was not in session.

Republican leaders, likewise, recorded themselves against a special legislative meeting and asserted that the committee should continue only for the remainder of the present session and cooperate with the regular appropriations group.

Marsh, House speaker in 1945 and Republican House majority chief in 1943, who has bolted the present leadership on previous occasions, thereupon resigned, saying that proposals of the party heads would "emasculate" the committee. Under such restrictions, he said, the group could not accomplish its objectives.

Cloth on Log, Not Struggling Swimmer
Police today investigated a call from a woman in Rhinecliff who said she feared that someone was struggling in the waters of the Hudson in an attempt to reach shore.

Officers Earl Schoonmaker and William A. Krum informed Captain Chris Tierney of the Kingston-Rhinecliff ferry of the call just before he left on a trip from this side.

Capt. Tierney telephoned from the other side of the river that a piece of white cloth caught on a floating log beyond the lighthouse, was the apparent cause of the woman's concern.

Letter on Piping Tannery Brook Is Sent to Residents

A letter explaining the proposal to pipe the Tannery brook and a petition form to be signed and returned, were mailed out today to property owners in the area by Ernest A. Steuding, superintendent of public works.

Support of the councilmen, when the project is ready for submission to the Common Council, was asked Tuesday night at a regular session by Alderman Victor H. Roth of the 12th ward.

The letter to the property owners stresses the point that they "have been undoubtedly aware of the unsanitary and disintegrating condition" of the stream.

It explains the decision to make it a city-wide project because the brook drains through parts of the first, 10th, 11th and 12th wards, and reported that "It is believed this brook can be piped this year."

Plans, the letter said, were started "during the war under post-war projects, and detailed plans are expected to follow as soon as enough petitions indicate that it is desired. April 12 was

Hudson, N. Y., April 3 (AP)—Charles Hallenbeck, Jr., 16, who was blinded by explosives he obtained on Lone Star Cement Company property, was awarded $60,000 today in Supreme Court. R. Monell Herzberg, company attorney, announced he would take the case to the Appellate Division.

Charles obtained the explosives, a dynamite cap and primer cord, October 21, 1945, Herzberg, who said Charles had trespassed on company property, told the jury he was "an intelligent boy, and should have realized the danger to which he was exposing himself."

Rosendale Merchants To Observe Good Friday

Business people of the village of Rosendale have joined in the movement to close their places of business for two hours on Good Friday in order that they and their employees may attend church services. Mayor Vaughan stated today that the stores would remain closed from 1 until 3 o'clock. This movement to close business places for a time on Good Friday has gained considerable support in several of the villages and towns of the county.

The State of New York has taken recognition of the Easter season too and state employees of the Christian faith will be allowed time off both today and Good Friday to attend Holy Week religious services. On Good Friday state employees may leave their work for the day at 11 a. m. and today Civil Service Commissioner J. Edward Conway notified department heads that employees need not report for work until 1 p. m.
